

RED CROSS NURSES LEAVING SALONIKI ON MULE BACK FOR THE BALKAN FRONT OVER ROADS IMPASSABLE FOR VEHICLES.

QUEEN MARIE OF RUMANIA, NOW A RED CROSS NURSE IN THE CONVERTED ROYAL PALACE AT BUCHAREST, CUTTING UP FOOD FOR A SOLDIER Whose Wounds Prevent the Use of His Hands

(Photo © U. & U.)

MEMBERS OF FRANCISCO VILLA'S IMMEDIATE FAMILY, NOW AT SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, DRINKING TO THE HEALTH OF "THE ABSENT HERO."

In the Group Are: Michaela Villa, the bandit's niece, Augustin Villa, his son, Mrs. Francisco Villa, Belem and Emilio Martinez, a Niece and Nephew, Miss Reynalda Villa, a Daughter of His First Marriage, C. F. Moya and Antonio Casteklanos, Former Villista Officers, and Baby Maria Luisa Villa, a Niece.

(Photo © International Film Service.)

(Photo © A. P. A. From Medem.)

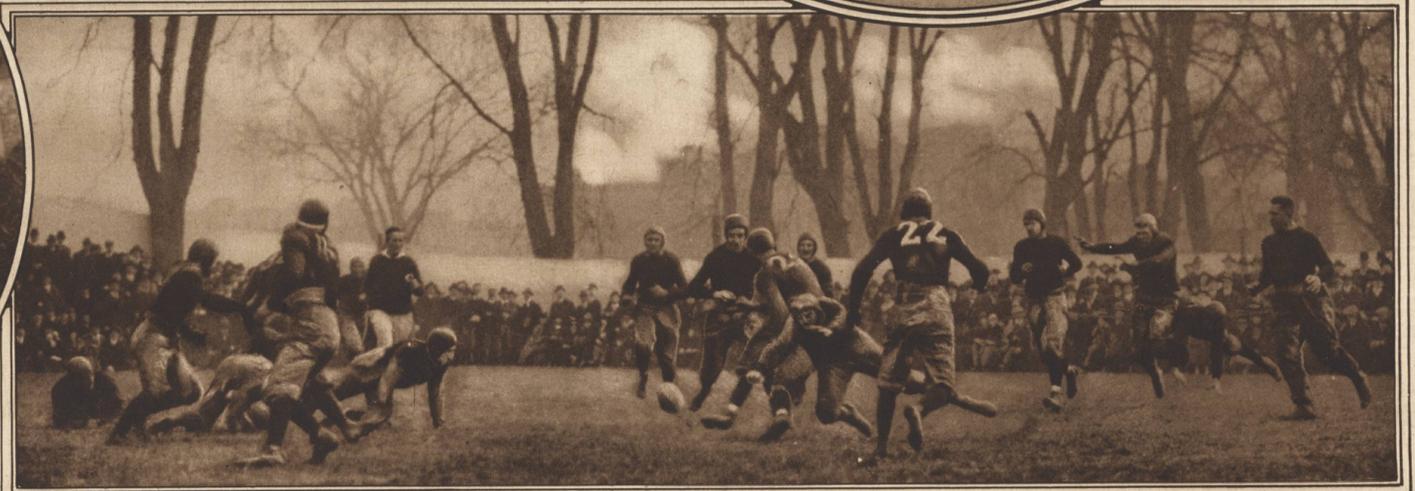

FRENCH LEADERS CONFERRING AT BOULOGNE. They Are, Left to Right: M. Albert Thomas, Gen. Joffre, Premier Briand, Gen. Roques, and M. Ribot

(Photo © A. P. A. From Medem.)

MISS PHYLLIS HOBSON, One of Several London Society Girls Who Have Taken Over the Management of the King's Stables at Sandringham to Release the Men for the Army. King George Recently Congratulated Them Personally on Their Work.

(Photo by Central News Photo Service.)

McNAMARA OF FORDHAM IN THE GAME WITH GEORGETOWN, FUMBLING AFTER A BRILLIANT RUN FOR THIRTY YARDS THROUGH GEORGETOWN'S DEFENSES.

(Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)