

THE FAMOUS BRITISH "TANK" OR "WILLIE" CRAWLING FORWARD ON A WEST FRONT BATTLEFIELD, WITH GERMAN PRISONERS MARCHING PAST TO THE REAR. This and the Accompanying Picture Are the First Photographs of This New Engine of Warfare in Actual Operation to Reach This Country.
(Photo © International Film Service.)

A "CLOSE-UP" VIEW OF THE BRITISH "TANK," Showing It Climbing Out of a Shell Hole, with the Trail of Its Caterpillar Tractors Plainly Visible. A Detachment of British Infantry Accompany It.
(Photo © by Central News Photo Service.)

GARDINER W. WHITE PUTTING AT THE ELEVENTH HOLE IN HIS LOSING MATCH WITH YOUNG NORMAN H. MAXWELL IN THE LAKEWOOD FALL TOURNAMENT.
(Photo by Edwin Levick.)

NORMAN H. MAXWELL, Latest "Boy Golf Marvel" and Winner of the Lakewood Tournament Against Gardiner White.
(Photo by Edwin Levick.)

"MOTHER" VINCENT, Who Has Served as Town Crier of the Oft-Bombarded Town of Luneville Since the Beginning of the War, Succeeding Her Husband, Who Insisted on Enlisting Despite His Sixty Years. She Has Been Under Fire Many Times in the Last Two Years in Her Rounds of Duty.
(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

RICHARD CROKER, FORMER TAMMANY CHIEF, AND HIS INDIAN PRINCESS BRIDE, NEWLY ARRIVED FROM IRELAND, ON A CHRISTMAS SHOPPING TOUR OF FIFTH AVENUE.
(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)