

MISS KATHLEEN BURKE, NOW IN NEW YORK IN THE INTEREST OF THE SCOTTISH WAR HOSPITAL SERVICE, SHAKING HANDS WITH GENERAL NIVELLE, THE NEW FIELD COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE FRENCH ARMIES. Miss Burke Is Said to be a Direct Descendant of Edmund Burke, the English Statesman and Orator.

(Photo by Central News Photo Service.)

DR. THEOBOLD VON BETHMANN HOLLWEG, THE GERMAN CHANCELLOR, WHO ANNOUNCED ON BEHALF OF GERMANY AND HER ALLIES, THEIR WILLINGNESS TO ENTER INTO NEGOTIATIONS FOR PEACE. From a Recent Autographed Photograph Regarded as One of the Best of Him to Reach This Country.

MARGUERITE CLARK AS "SNOW WHITE," HEROINE OF THE FAIRY-TALE OF THAT NAME, IN WHICH SHE IS SOON TO APPEAR ON THE SCREEN.

A POPULAR PARIS NOVELTY HAT, WITH THE COCK, REPRESENTATIVE OF FRANCE, BEATING DOWN THE GERMAN. SKETCHED ON BLACK VELVET.

(Photo American Press Assn. From Medem.)

LATEST PARIS WAR FAD. The White Hat Presents Sketched or Embroidered Figures of Soldiers Representing the Principal Allies of France, While a Photograph of the Wearer's Husband or Sweetheart, Showing His Decorations, Is Worn as Brooch.

(Photo American Press Assn. From Medem.)

THE BONDUELLE FAMILY OF THIRTEEN, SAID TO BE THE LARGEST IN ALL FRANCE. Though the Latest Arrivals Are Both Boys, the Girls Still Have a Majority of One.

(Photo American Press Assn. From Medem.)