

"LITTLE SISTER" JOY, Daughter of Dr. G. A. MacDonald, Though Only 5 Years Old, Dons a Red Cross Uniform Daily and Attends Patients in the War Hospital at Dungaevl, the Duke of Hamilton's Shooting Box in Scotland, Which Has Been Converted Into a Hospital.

(Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

PRESIDENT POINCARE OF THE FRENCH REPUBLIC IN CONFERENCE WITH MEMBERS OF THE MOHAMMEDAN MISSION SENT FROM MECCA TO ENTER INTO NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE ENTENTE ALLIES.

(Photo by Central News Photo Service.)

GERMAN HUSSARS CROSSING A RIVER IN MACEDONIA FOR CONTACT WITH THE ALLIES ON THE GREEK FRONT.

(Photo from International Press Exchange.)

ELEUTHERIOS VENIZELOS, FORMER GREEK PREMIER, And Now Head of the Provisional Greek Government Organized by Himself at Saloniki, Reviewing a Greek Regiment Before It Marches Away to Join the Allies' Forces Against the Bulgars.

(Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

ENGLAND MOBILIZING HER MAN-POWER. Elderly Men Too Feeble for Work in the Munition Plants Are Shown Preparing the Sphagnum Moss for Surgical Dressings.

(Photo from Central News Photo Service.)

MISS MARIE BRADY, Whose Wedding to Thomas E. Murray, Jr., Has Been Announced to Take Place This Week.

(Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)

THE ADVANCE OF THE TEUTONS TOWARD BUCHAREST. Austrian Sentries Are Here Shown on Guard Over Roads Which Traverse the Famous "Golden Valley of Bistritz," Where Lie the Most Fertile Grain Fields of Rumania.

(Photo © International Film Service.)