

RUSSIAN TROOPS MARCHING INTO MONASTIR, FOLLOWING ITS RECAPTURE BY THE ALLIES ON NOV. 19, THE ANNIVERSARY OF ITS CAPTURE BY THE SERBIANS IN 1912. From a French Official Photograph. (Photo © American Press Assn. From Medem.)

FRENCH SOLDIER PLAYING CHECKERS WITH A COMPATRIOT, WHO STILL OCCUPIES HER WAR-SHATTERED CHATEAU IN THE NORTH OF FRANCE. (Photo © American Press Assn. From Medem.)

FRENCH SHARPSHOOTER PLYING HIS DEADLY TRADE FROM THE VANTAGE POINT OF A TREE TOP. (Photo © American Press Assn. From Medem.)

BELGIAN GIRLS WHO SHOVE COAL-LADEN CARS ALL DAY AT THE BELGIAN COAL MINES. (Photo © Brown & Dawson.)

KING ALPHONSO XIII. OF SPAIN, FOLLOWED BY HIS WAR CHIEFS, REVIEWING HIS TROOPS IN MADRID. (Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

"CHRIST APPEARING TO MARY"—BY ROGER VAN DER WEYDEN, WHICH HAS BEEN BOUGHT BY MICHAEL DREICER FROM THE REINHARDT GALLERIES FOR $150,000. THE PAINTING WAS IN THE POSSESSION OF QUEEN ISABELLA OF SPAIN AT THE TIME SHE WAS BEFRIENDING COLUMBUS. (Courtesy of the Associated Art Press of America.)