

FRENCH WOMEN AND CHILDREN, AFTER TWENTY-EIGHT MONTHS OF EXILE IN GERMANY, ARE RETURNED TO THEIR HOME AT ANNEMASSE, FRANCE, BY WAY OF SWITZERLAND.
(Photo from Press Illustrating Co.)

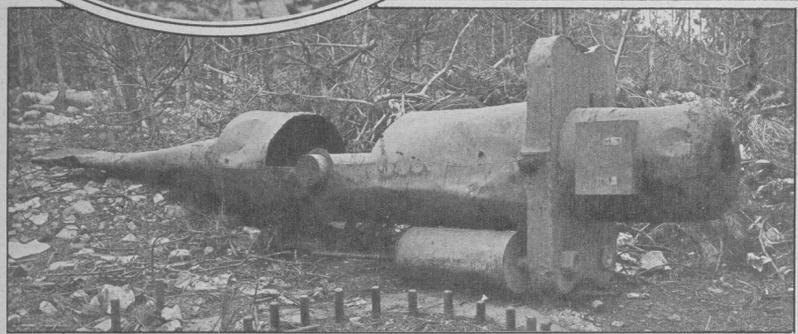

OWEN JOHNSON, AMERICAN NOVELIST, AMID THE RUINS OF VERDUN.

(Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)

ITALIAN SOLDIERS AT FIELD MASS IN THE CARNIC ALPS.
(Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

AUSTRIAN DUMMY GUN RIGGED UP TO DECEIVE ITALIAN AIRSCOUTS. It Was Left Behind by the Austrians Retreating Before the Italian Advance. From an Italian Official Photograph.

(Photo © International Film Service.)

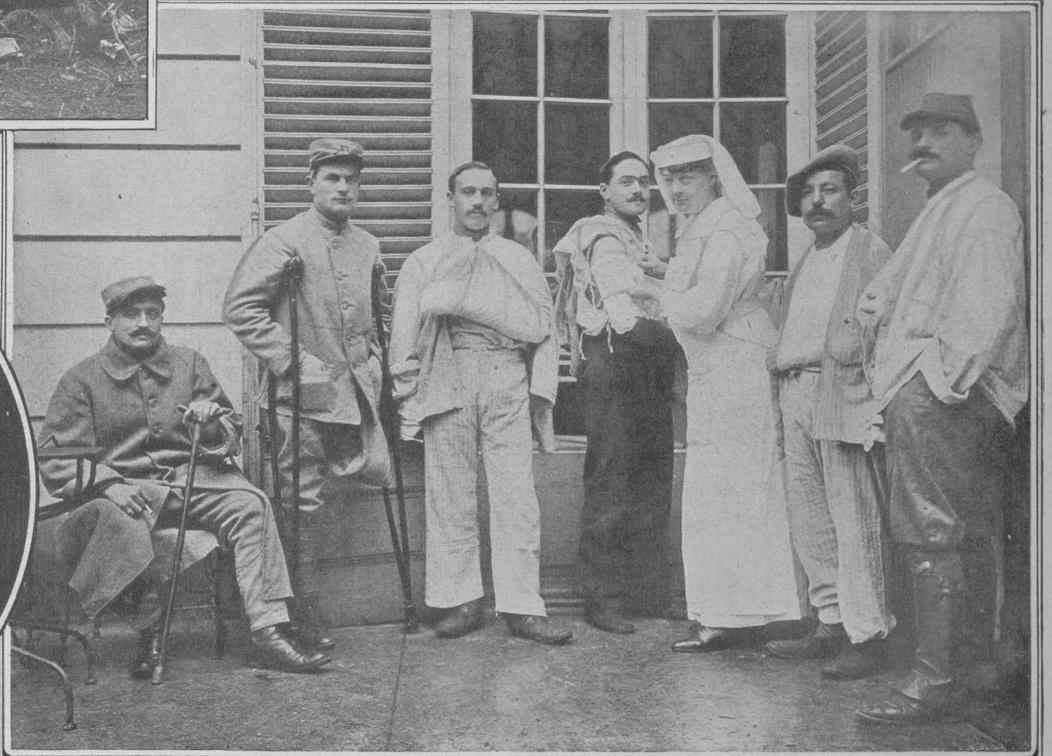

HOWARD LINES, Only Son of Dr. Ernest H. Lines, Graduate of Dartmouth College and Harvard Law School, and Head of Section 1 of the American Ambulance Corps in France, Who Died on Christmas Eve While on Duty in the Argonne.

GIRL WELDER AT WORK IN AN ENGLISH MUNITIONS PLANT.

(Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

PRINCESS AYMON DE FAUCIGNY-LUCINGE, FORMERLY MRS. JOSEPH STICKNEY OF NEW YORK, BANDAGING THE ARM OF A FRENCH SOLDIER BROUGHT TO HER WAR HOSPITAL IN PARIS.
(Photo © American Press Assn. From Medem.)