

THE FUNERAL PROCESSION OF ADMIRAL GEORGE DEWEY FROM THE NATIONAL CAPITOL TO ARLINGTON CEMETERY TURNING FROM PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE INTO FOURTEENTH STREET, WASHINGTON, WITH THE TREASURY BUILDING IN THE BACKGROUND. (Photo from George Grantham Bain.)

A GERMAN FOKKER, WITH ITS TWO OFFICERS, FALLS ON DUTCH SOIL NEAR NIMEGUEN, TEARING OFF THE GABLE END OF A HOUSE AS WELL AS WRECKING ITSELF. (Photo from U. & U.)

THE PRESIDENT AND MRS. WILSON LEAVING THE RESIDENCE OF ADMIRAL DEWEY, WHERE THE PRIVATE FUNERAL SERVICE WAS HELD. (Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)

DR. CARY T. GRAYSON, U. S. N. The President's Physician and Recently Nominated by Him to be Medical Director With Rank of Rear Admiral, at Admiral Dewey's Funeral. (Photo © American Press Assn.)

FORMER QUEEN LILIUOKALANI, OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS. From Her Most Recent Photograph, Just Received in New York. (Photo © by Morse, From I. F. S.)

THE WRECKED UNITED STATES SUBMARINE H-3 LYING ON THE BEACH AT EUREKA, CAL., WITH THE CRUISER MILWAUKEE, LOST WHILE TRYING TO SAVE THE H-3. PLAINLY VISIBLE IN THE DISTANCE. A Photograph of the Milwaukee Taken a Few Hours After She Grounded Is Reproduced on the Second Page. (Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)

A PANORAMIC PHOTOGRAPH OF THE SCENE AT THE CAPITOL DURING ADMIRAL DEWEY'S FUNERAL APPEARS ON PAGES 6 AND 7.