
CHARLES B. DURBONARD
Of Riverton, N. J., Who Is Called by His Acquaintances "the Human Polar Bear," Taking His Usual Morning Dip in the Delaware River Prior to Going to His Office in a Philadelphia Bank.

(Photos © International Film Service.)

FINISH OF A TROTTING RACE ON LAKE GEORGE, A DAILY FEATURE OF THE WINTER SPORTS NOW BEING HELD ON THE FROZEN SURFACE OF THE LAKE.

(Photo by Paul Thompson.)

MRS. JEROME N. BONAPARTE,
OF NEW YORK AND WASHINGTON, AT PALM BEACH.
(Photo © International Film Service.)

BEN ALI HAGGIN, ARTIST,
As a Mandarin at the Chincse Costume Ball Given by Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Tartoue in Honor of Miss Harriette McAlpin, Whose Engagement Was Recently Announced.

(Photo by Jean de Strelecki.)

MORNING BATHING SCENE AT PALM BEACH, WITH MRS. OSCAR LEWISOHN AND MRS. WALTER LEWISOHN OF NEW YORK, AND "JACK" BRANCH OF RICHMOND, VIRGINIA, IN THE FOREGROUND.

MRS. GEORGE VOLK AND LITTLE DAUGHTER VIRGINIA VIVIAN,
The Granddaughter of Ambassador and Mme. Da Gama of Brazil, Arriving from Europe, where, in Rome Two Years Ago, the Little Girl Was Born.

(Photos © International Film Service.)

"IT SURE IS JAN"—BY WILLIAM P. GRUPPE,
From the Annual Exhibition of the American Water Color Society, Now Being Held at the National Arts Club.
(Photo by Peter Juley.)

THE "SPIRIT OF THE DANCE"—A DECORATION BY AN ARTIST FOR ARTISTS.
It Is One of the Mural Panels Painted by Frank V. Du Mond for the Ballroom of the Hotel des Artists, the New Co-operative Hotel Built by Artists as Their Home.
(Photo by Peter Juley.)