

"Welcome home Daddy"

Woolly as little Teddy Bears!

How sweet they look to Father—rosy from their merry tubbings—warm and laughing in their fuzzy, soft woolens.

You love to have them look cunning in their flannel night things—not to have them in yellowed shrunken garments—that "catch" them under the arms or at the knees—that scratch and irritate their tender little skins.

The woolens discourage you

Yet it seems so impossible to keep the woolens nice. The rubbing of any cake soap on the wool fabric, and more rubbing to get the dirt out, makes the garments harsh, makes them shrink and turn yellow.

You will say "It doesn't seem possible"

With Lux you can keep all the children's woolens like new.

It is almost like play to wash the children's clothes with Lux. You will be amazed. No rubbing is necessary. Dance the woolens up and down in the rich frothy lather and the dirt dissolves instantly. So soluble are the flakes that all of the soap rinses out easily, leaving the garments pure and white.

Lux will leave your downiest woolens like new. Use it for anything that can be washed in water.

Your grocer has Lux, and all department stores. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

How to wash woolens

Whisk the Lux flakes into a lather in boiling or very hot water. Put in your woolens and let them soak until the water is comfortable for the hands. Then work them about in the suds, but do not rub. Rinse in three waters the same temperature as that in which you washed them. Dissolve a little Lux in the last rinsing water; this leaves the woolens softer and fluffier. Squeeze the water out without twisting. Dry in the sun (colored woolens in the shade).
