

START OF THE FUNERAL CORTEGE OF GENERAL FREDERICK FUNSTON, U. S. A., FROM THE CITY HALL, SAN FRANCISCO, FOR THE CEMETERY.
(Photo from Central News Photo Service.)

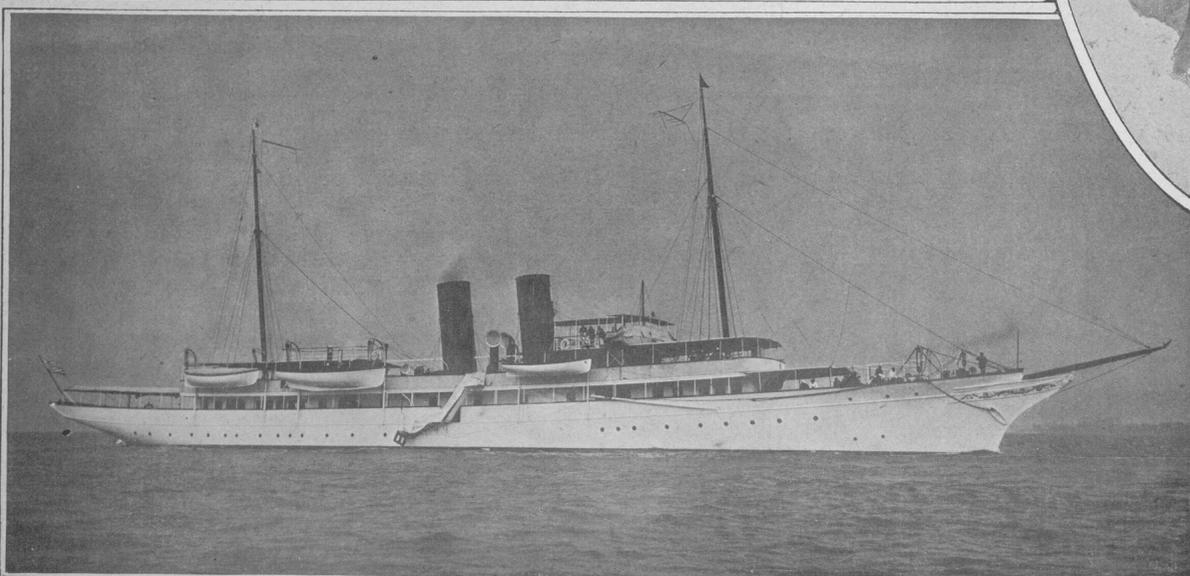

"LA FRILEUSE," OR "THE SHIVERING GIRL,"
Famous Bronze Statue by Houdon, Signed and Dated by the French Sculptor in 1787, Which Has Been Bought by an American Collector, Through Jacques Seligmann, for the Reported Price of $170,000.
(Photo from Dorr News Service.)

NATIONAL GUARD TROOPS GUARDING A STREAM CONNECTED WITH BROOKLYN'S WATER SUPPLY ON LONG ISLAND.
(Photo © American Press Assn.)

MISS FIFI WIDENER,
Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Widener, at Palm Beach.
(Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)

THE NORMA, PLEASURE YACHT OF VINCENT ASTOR, OFFERED BY HIM FREE TO THE GOVERNMENT IN THE EVENT OF WAR.
(Photo © by Edwin Levick.)

MRS. JOSEPH E. WIDENER
Wearing at Palm Beach a Bathing Suit of Several Novelty Features.
(Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)

GEORGE ARLISS,
In "The Professor's Love Story," at the Knickerbocker Theatre.
(Photo by White Studio.)

