

DR. JOSEPH A. BLAKE, THE FORMER NEW YORK SURGEON, WHO HAS ACCEPTED THE INVITATION OF THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT TO HEAD THE DOYEN HOSPITAL, CONSIDERED THE FINEST IN PARIS, WHICH HE WILL CONDUCT AS A WAR HOSPITAL UNDER THE AMERICAN RED CROSS. From a new photograph showing Dr. Blake in his war hospital at Ris-Orangis, near Paris.

(Photos © International Film Service.)

THE GERMAN EMPEROR, FIELD MARSHAL VON HINDENBURG, AND GENERAL VON LUDENDORF, GERMAN CHIEF OF STAFF, EXAMINING MAPS AND CAMPAIGN PLANS IN THE GERMAN GREAT HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE.

(Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

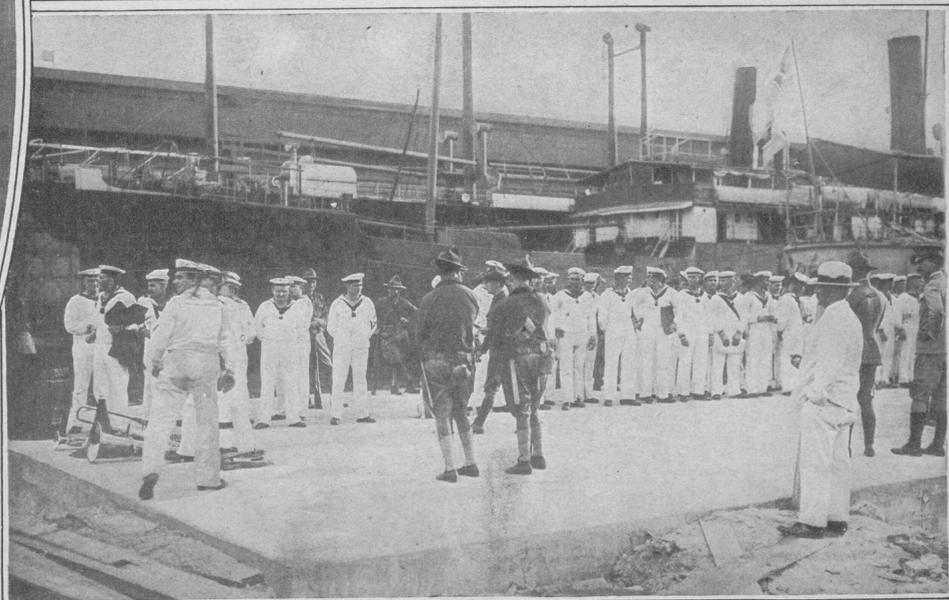

MRS. FRANK E. HARRIS, of Philadelphia, wife of Colonel Harris, U. S. A., last woman to leave the torpedoed Laconia. She was on her way to England to become a Red Cross Nurse.

(Photo © by Ira Hill Studio.)

PORTUGUESE TROOPS, DESTINED FOR THE FRONT IN FRANCE, MARCHING THROUGH BREST, HAVING JUST DEBARKED AT THAT PORT. So far as known this is the first photograph to reach this country showing a considerable body of Portuguese soldiers on French soil. (Photo from Kadel & Herbert.)

KATHARINE DENISE LIVINGSTON, DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. ROBERT L. LIVINGSTON. From a new portrait by Mme. Lucas-Robiquet. (Photo by Hopson & Juntel.)

CREW OF THE GERMAN CRUISER GEIER, INTERNED AT HONOLULU, ASSEMBLED ON THE PIER UNDER GUARD OF AMERICAN SOLDIERS, PREPARATORY TO MARCHING OFF TO AN INTERNMENT CAMP. The German Flag Can Be Seen on the Right Flying from the Afterdeck of the Geier. (Photo by Kadel & Herbert.)

COLONEL EDWARD M. HOUSE, CONFIDENTIAL AND UNOFFICIAL ADVISER OF THE PRESIDENT. From a photograph taken in the Colonel's New York home on Washington's Birthday last. (Photo by Press Illustrating Service.)