

CITIZENS OF THE VILLAGE OF SPARKILL, NEAR NYACK, ROCKLAND COUNTY, N. Y., WHO HAVE ORGANIZED A HOME DEFENSE LEAGUE, DRILLING UNDER THE CAPTAINCY OF FRANK E. STRIPE, A NEW YORK ATTORNEY.

(Photo © International Film Service.)

MISS VIRGINIA McDONOUGH, Daughter of Baroness Gustav C. von Egloffstein, and Granddaughter of the Late H. E. McCord, Wealthy Northwest Lumberman, at Coronado Beach, Cal.

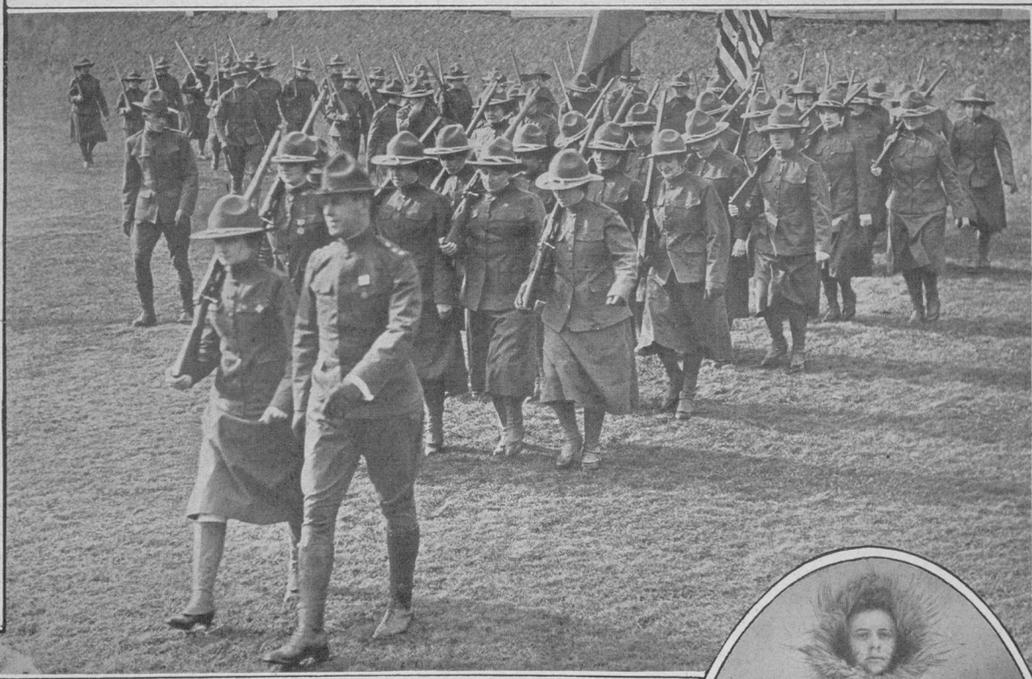

YOUNG WOMEN SELLING SHAMROCKS IN THE LOBBY OF THE VANDERBILT FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE SHAMROCK FUND FOR WOUNDED AND DISABLED IRISH SOLDIERS IN THE DUBLIN HOSPITALS.

They Are, Left to Right: Mrs. Alfred Hopkins, Mrs. Albert Jaekel, and Miss Helen Meeks.

LITTLE MISS MARGARET SPAULDING, Daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Charles E. Spaulding, at the Costume Party Recently Given at Coronado Beach.

A PREPAREDNESS COMPANY OF BOSTON SHOP GIRLS, IN KHAKI UNIFORMS, DRILLING IN FENWAY PARK, BOSTON'S BALL GROUND.

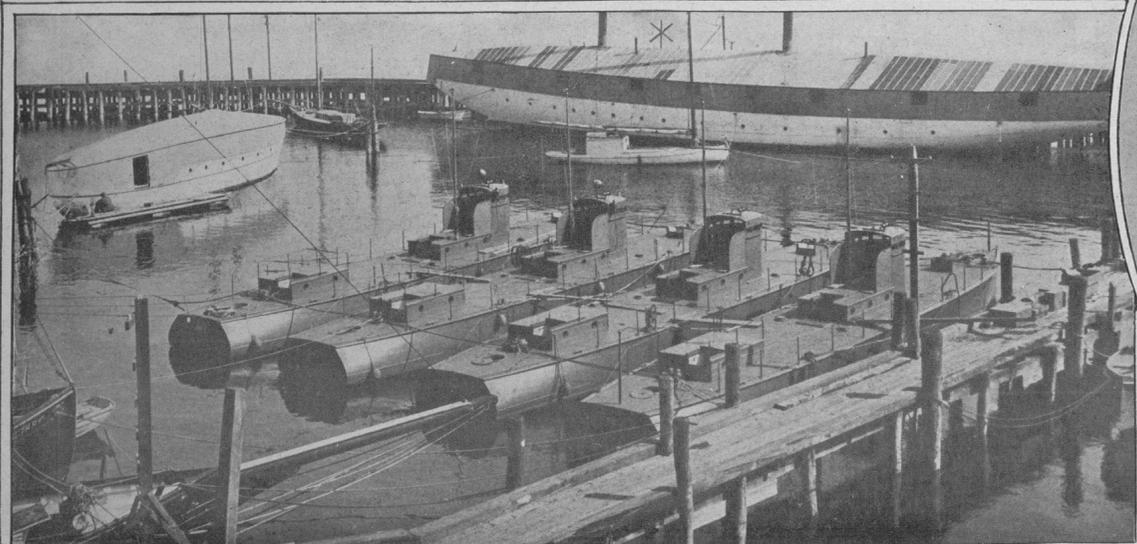

FUR COAT MADE OF MANY MARTEN SKINS AND OF GREAT VALUE, WHICH HAS JUST BEEN PRESENTED TO THE AMERICAN MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY BY MRS. E. H. HARRIMAN.

The Skins Were Collected by the Late E. H. Harriman During His Visit to Alaska in 1899 with the Harriman Expedition Which He Financed.

LIEUT. COL. C. A. F. FLAGLER, ENGINEER CORPS, U. S. A., Who Has Been Designated as Military Attache to the American Embassy at Rome to Succeed Major Elvid Heiberg.

GROUP OF MINIATURE TORPEDO BOATS, DESIGNED AS SUBMARINE CHASERS FOR THE UNITED STATES NAVY, LYING IN THEIR DOCK AT GREENPORT, L. I., AWAITING THE FINAL TEST BY THE NAVY DEPARTMENT. They May Be Carried on the Decks of Merchant and Warships Until Danger Zones Are Reached. They Make 44 Miles an Hour, Are Equipped with a Torpedo Tube Forward, and a One-pounder Aft, and Need Only Three or Four Men to Man Them.