

THE FREIGHTER ORLEANS, CAPTAIN ALLEN TUCKER, FIRST AMERICAN SHIP TO RUN THE GAUNTLET OF THE "BARRED" ZONE AFTER THE PUBLICATION OF THE GERMAN NOTE OF JAN. 31, ARRIVING AT BORDEAUX, FOR WHICH SHE SAILED FROM NEW YORK ON FEB. 10.

(Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)

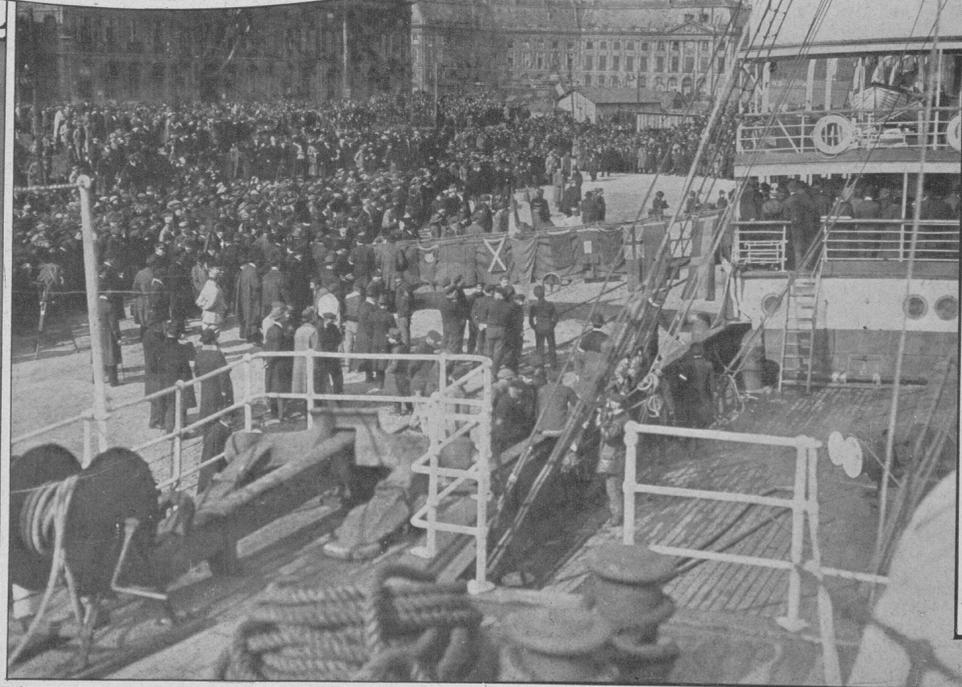

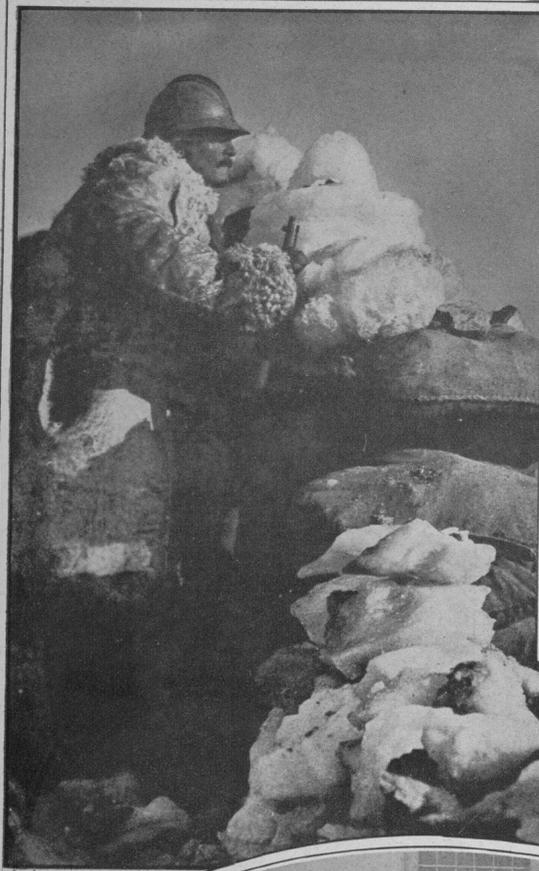

CIVIL AND MILITARY AUTHORITIES OF BORDEAUX ESCORTING CAPTAIN TUCKER, WHO CAN BE SEEN HUGGING HIS BOUQUET, TO THE BORDEAUX CITY HALL FOR FURTHER WELCOMING CEREMONIES.

French Poilu, of the Observation Balloon Section, and the Regimental Mascot, a Black Bird, which the men have tamed and trained to sit on their helmets in fancied resemblance to the Prussian Eagle.

(Photo © by International Film Service.)

BORDEAUX CROWDS ASSEMBLED AT THE PIER SIDE TO WELCOME THE ORLEANS. Representatives of the French Army and the Civil Government of Bordeaux can be seen assembled on the forward deck of the Orleans to extend an official welcome to Captain Tucker and to present him with a bouquet.

(Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)

AN ITALIAN OUTPOST 9,000 FEET ABOVE SEA LEVEL, WHERE FROZEN SNOW AS WELL AS SACKS FILLED WITH STONES ARE USED IN DEFENSIVE BARRICADES.

(Photo by Central News Photo Service.)

A DELEGATION OF FRENCH DEPUTIES ON A VISIT TO THE ITALIAN FRONT ARE HERE SHOWN ARRIVING AT THE ITALIAN GENERAL HEADQUARTERS ON THE AUSTRIAN FRONTIER. Notables in the group, left to right, are: General Pedoya, Guglielmo Marconi, inventor of wireless telegraphy, and M. Obel, French deputy.

(Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

THE RIGHT HON. DAVID LLOYD GEORGE, BRITISH PRIME MINISTER, AND HIS BROTHER, WILLIAM LLOYD GEORGE (LEFT), AT THE BURIAL OF THEIR UNCLE AND FOSTER FATHER, RICHARD LLOYD, FOR MORE THAN FIFTY YEARS JOINT PASTOR OF THE BAPTIST CHURCH AT CRICCIETH, WALES.

(Photo from Central News.)