

THE LARS FOSTENES, NORWEGIAN STEAMER, WHICH WAS SUNK BY A SUBMARINE WITHOUT WARNING AND OUTSIDE OF THE "BARRED" ZONE WHILE BOUND FOR ROTTERDAM LADEN WITH AMERICAN GRAIN FOR THE BELGIANS.

MARIE CARROLL
In "Oh, Boy!" at the Princess Theatre.
(Photo by White.)

MRS. BENJAMIN S. GUINNESS.
From a New Photograph.
(Photo © by Aime Dupont.)

THE MARQUESS OF BLANDFORD, SON AND HEIR OF THE DUKE OF MARLBOROUGH.
The Duchess, His Mother, Was Formerly Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt.
From a Recent Photograph Just Received in This City.

LADY WELLESLEY,
Recently Wedded in This City to Her Brother-in-Law, Lord George Wellesley, Fourth Son of the Duke of Wellington and Great Grandson of the "Iron Duke."
Lady Wellesley's First Husband, Lord Richard Wellesley, a Brother of Lord George, Was Killed in Action in October, 1914. Lord and Lady Wellesley Expect to Return to England This Week.
(Photos © International Film Service.)

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER, SR., WATCHING HIS "DRIVE" ON THE LINKS AT DAYTONA, FLA., WHERE HE IS SPENDING THE SPRING.
(Photo © International Film Service.)

PRIZE WINNING FLOAT IN THE PRE-LENTEEN CARNIVAL IN MADRID.
(Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)