

MEN OF THE ROCKLAND COUNTY PATRIOTIC SOCIETY AND THE NYACK HOME GUARD, COMPOSED LARGELY OF MEN WHO HAVE BUSINESS IN THE CITY, ENLIST UNDER THE FLAG FOR INCREASED PRODUCTION FROM THE SOIL.
(Photo © by International Film Service.)

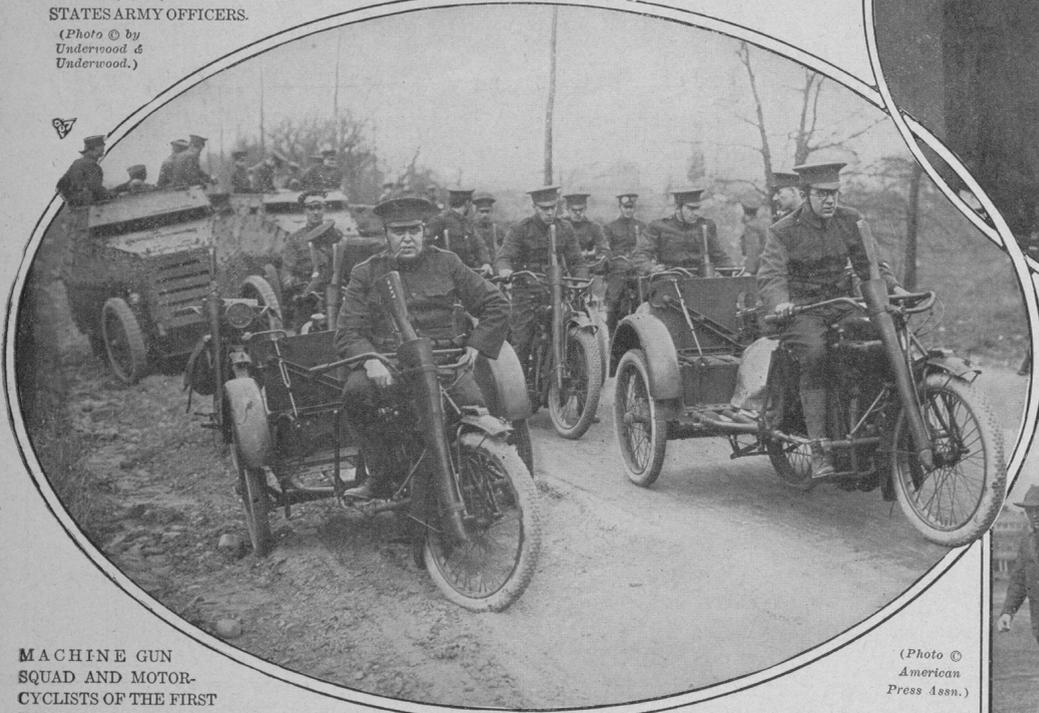

CITIZEN SOLDIERS, ACCEPTED FOR TRAINING, RECEIVING MILITARY INSTRUCTION AT FORT TOTTEN, L. I., FROM UNITED STATES ARMY OFFICERS.

(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

Front, Enrolling Columbia Students for an Aerial Coast Patrol Service, Now Being Organized at Port Washington, L. I.
(Photo by Paul Thompson.)

Mrs. Waldo Pierce, Aviation Instructress, and, Behind Her, Clarence Martin, and Philip H. Sims, Instructor, Who Served Nine Months With the British Royal Flying Corps on the French

MACHINE GUN SQUAD AND MOTORCYCLISTS OF THE FIRST FIELD AND MOTOR-CYCLE BATTERY, N. G. N. Y., TESTING OUT THEIR EQUIPMENT ON THE BOSTON POST ROAD.

(Photo © American Press Assn.)

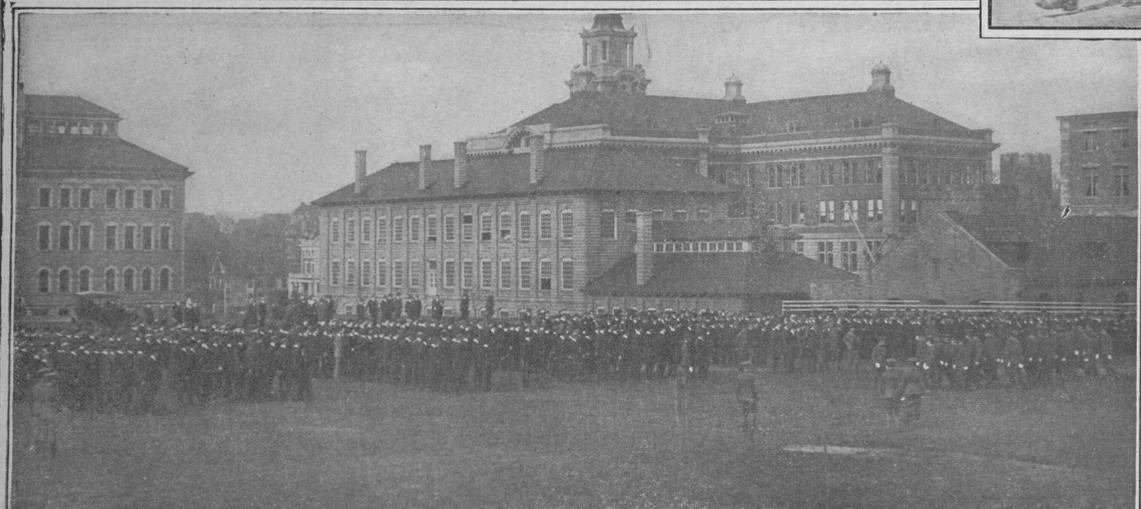

MEN ACCEPTED FOR SERVICE IN THE REGULAR ARMY ARRIVING AT FORT SLOCUM FOR MILITARY INSTRUCTION.

(Photo © by International Film Service.)

GIRLS SINGING AT THE CITY HALL RECRUITING STATION TO DRAW YOUNG MEN TO THE COLORS.

(Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)

STUDENTS OF SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY HOLDING THEIR FIRST MILITARY DRILL UNDER CAPTAIN ALLAN POPE, U. S. A., WITH 800 MEN PRESENT. Officers of St. John's School, Manlius, N. Y., Who Appear in the Right Foreground, Are Present to Assist Captain Pope.
(Photo from International Film Service.)