

MARSHAL JOFFRE EXAMINING THE GOLDEN REPRODUCTION OF THE STATUE OF LIBERTY PRESENTED TO HIM BY POPULAR SUBSCRIPTION THROUGH THE NEW YORK WORLD.
(American Press Assn.)

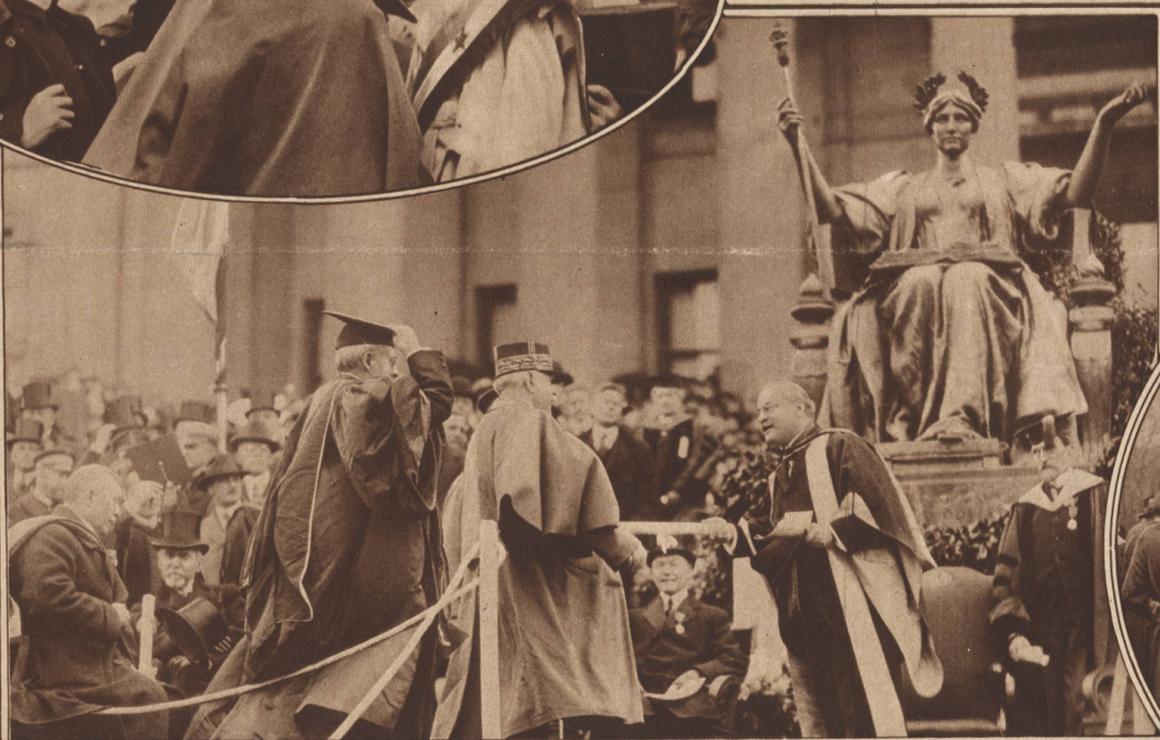

JOSEPH HODGES CHOATE, LAWYER AND DIPLOMATIST, WHO DIED ON LAST MONDAY NIGHT AT THE AGE OF EIGHTY-FIVE.
From a Photograph Taken at the Battery on May 9 While, as Chairman of the Mayor's Reception Committee, He Awaited the Arrival of the French Commission.
(© Social Press Assn.)

MAYOR MITCHEL GREETING THE RIGHT HON. ARTHUR JAMES BALFOUR, HEAD OF THE BRITISH MISSION, AT THE STEPS OF THE CITY HALL.
The Late Mr. Choate is Ascending the Steps Just Ahead of Mr. Balfour.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

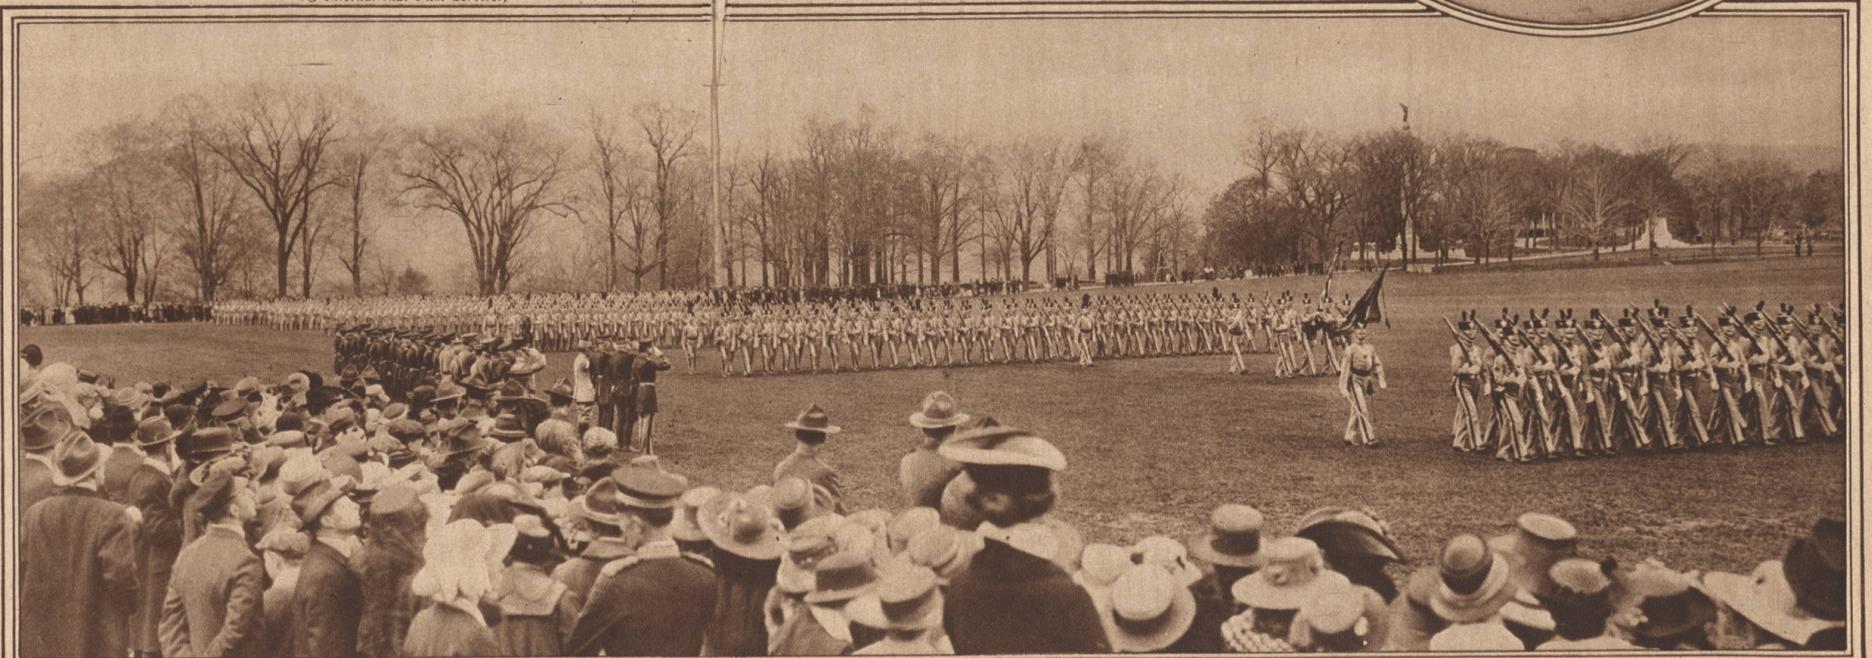

MARSHAL JOFFRE BESTOWING A KISS ON THE CHEEK OF LITTLE MARY CURLEY, DAUGHTER OF MAYOR CURLEY OF BOSTON, WHEN SHE PRESENTED HIM WITH A CHECK FOR $175,000, GIVEN BY THE CHILDREN OF BOSTON FOR THE WAR ORPHANS OF FRANCE. Vice Admiral Chocheprat Can be Seen on the left.
(© International Film Service.)

PRESIDENT NICHOLAS MURRAY BUTLER OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY CONFERRING ON MARSHAL JOFFRE THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF LAWS.
M. Rene Viviani, Head of the French Mission, Who Had Just Received a Similar Honor, and Ambassador Jusserand Are Seated on the Left.
(© International Film Service.)

MEMBERS OF THE FRENCH MISSION, LED BY MARSHAL JOFFRE, ENTERING THE TOMB OF LINCOLN AT SPRINGFIELD, ILL.
(Paul Thompson.)

MARSHAL JOFFRE SALUTING THE FLAG DURING HIS REVIEW OF THE CADETS OF THE UNITED STATES MILITARY ACADEMY, WEST POINT, WHEN A SPECIAL PARADE WAS HELD IN HIS HONOR.
(Times Photo Service.)

ADDITIONAL PHOTOGRAPHS IN CONNECTION WITH THE VISIT OF THE FRENCH AND BRITISH MISSIONS APPEAR ON PAGE SIX.