

PARIS CELEBRATING AT THE BASE OF WASHINGTON'S STATUE, IN THE PLACE D'IENA, THE ENTRY OF THE UNITED STATES INTO THE WAR. The American Ambassador, William G. Sharp, Can Be Seen Standing Just in Front of the "Stars and Stripes." (© International Film Service.)

RUSSIAN PRIVATE SOLDIER DELIVERING A POLITICAL ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE FROM A BALCONY IN THE CITY HALL OF PETROGRAD.

M. NOTE, OF THE PARIS GRAND OPERA, SINGING THE MARSEILLAISE AT THE BASE OF WASHINGTON'S STATUE IN PARIS ON "AMERICA DAY." Mme. Nina, Who Sang the "Star Spangled Banner," Stands Beside Him. (Kadel & Herbert.)

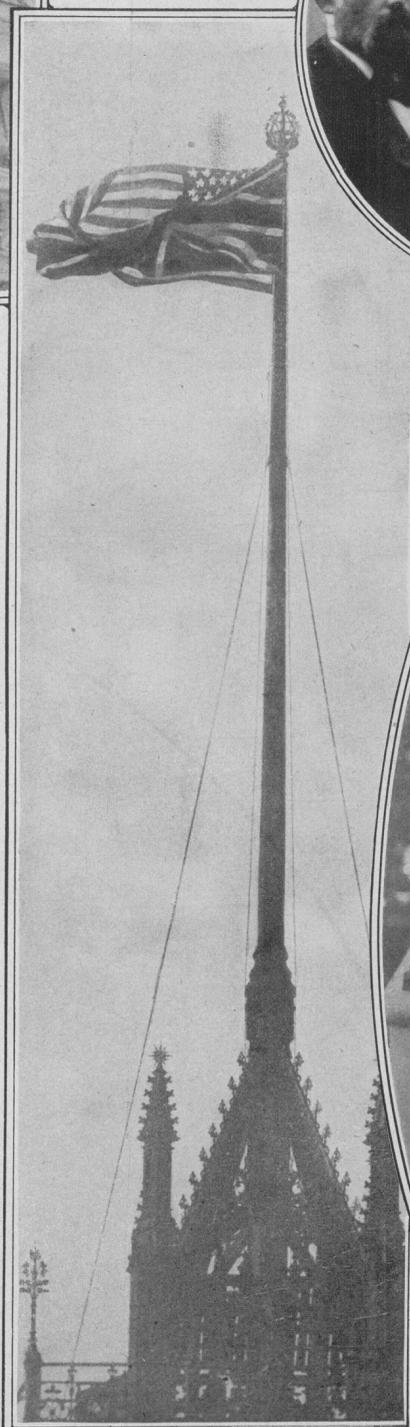

Soldier, on Guard Before the Gates of the Tsarskoye-Selo Palace, Where the Former Czar and Family Are Prisoners, Lifting on His Bayonet Point the Red Flag Which Conceals the Insignia of the Old Regime. (Photos © I. F. S.)

MISS B. HOSANG, First Chinese Girl to be Graduated from McGill University, Montreal, Having Received a Week Ago the Degree of Bachelor of Arts.

GROUP OF THE SIXTY-FIVE RED CROSS NURSES OF BASE HOSPITAL NO. 2 OF THE PRESBYTERIAN UNIT ASSEMBLED ON THE PIER JUST BEFORE SAILING FOR FRANCE. (© by E. G. Dunning.)

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE HISTORY OF ENGLAND A FOREIGN FLAG, THE "STARS AND STRIPES," FLOATS FROM THE VICTORIA TOWER, LONDON. It Is Shown Flying Side by Side with the Union Jack on "America Day," Celebrated Throughout England.

CHIEF STRONG HEART, A FULL-BLOODED INDIAN, SAID TO BE THE FIRST OF HIS RACE TO VOLUNTEER FOR SERVICE IN FRANCE UNDER COLONEL ROOSEVELT. Strong Heart Is a Grandson of Chief Standing Rock Who Participated in "Custer's Last Fight." (Kadel & Herbert.)