

GENERAL VON FLECK REVIEWING HIS TROOPS IN THE GRAND PLAZA AT HAM, SOMME DISTRICT, FRANCE, A SHORT TIME BEFORE THE GERMAN RETREAT FROM THAT SECTION. General von Fleck Has Been Nicknamed by the French, "Le Demenageur," or "Mover." Because of the Large Quantity of Choice Furniture from the Best Houses in Ham Which He Is Said to Have Had Shipped to His Castle in Prussia. From a photograph found in the Possession of a German Officer Captured During the Retreat.

MRS. OLIVER HARRIMAN IN HER WAR GARDEN AT HER COUNTRY PLACE NEAR WHITE PLAINS, NEW YORK. (American Press Assn.)

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH W. BURDEN, Formerly Miss Margery Maude, Actress, and Daughter of Cyril Maude, the English Actor, Leaving Grace Church Chantry After Their Marriage on Last Monday. (Central News Service.)

LADY DIANA MANNERS, DAUGHTER OF THE DUKE OF RUTLAND, AND CALLED ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL WOMEN OF ENGLAND, AS "EUROPE" IN THE TABLEAUX VIVANTS GIVEN IN LONDON FOR THE RELIEF OF BELGIAN WAR ORPHANS. The Accompanying Legend Read: "Am I Not Yet Sufficiently Civilized?" (Central News Photo Service.)

CROWN PRINCE ALEXANDER OF SERBIA KNEELING TO CONVERSE WITH A RUSSIAN OFFICER WHO HAD RECENTLY LOST A LEG IN BATTLE. (Kadel & Herbert.)

NEW YORKERS IN THE RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CAMP AT PLATTSBURG SHORING UP TRENCHES WHICH THEY HAVE JUST DUG. (© American Press Assn.)

MRS. W. A. GAVIN, RECENTLY CROWNED WOMEN'S METROPOLITAN CHAMPION, DRIVING ON THE ENGLEWOOD LINKS IN THE OPENING GAMES OF THE PROFESSIONAL GOLFERS' WEEK OF WAR RELIEF COMPETITIONS. (Central News Photo Service.)

(Photos © Underwood & Underwood.)

"SAMMIES," SOON TO SEE SERVICE IN THE FRENCH LANGUAGE AT THE TRAINING CAMP PITCHED ON THE BATTLEFIELD OF GETTYSBURG, PENN.