

ONE OF THE 350 WOMEN AND GIRLS EMPLOYED BY THE NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILWAY BETWEEN ST. PAUL, MINN., AND THE PACIFIC COAST TO CLEAN THE ENGINES OF THAT ROAD, RELEASING MEN FOR THE WAR. The Women Were Formerly Milliners, Typists, and Dressmakers.

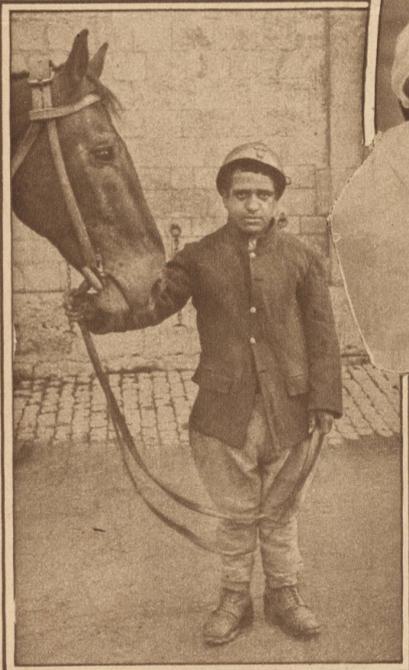

AMERICAN AND BRAZILIAN NAVAL OFFICERS, AS GUESTS OF ADMIRAL ALEXANDRINO ALENCAR, MINISTER OF THE BRAZILIAN MARINE, ON THE OCCASION OF THE RECENT VISIT OF AN AMERICAN FLEET TO RIO DE JANEIRO, VIEWING THE HARBOR OF THE CITY FROM THE LOOKOUT STATION AT THE SUMMIT OF CORCOVADO MOUNTAIN.

The City of Rio, the "Sugar Loaf" Mountain, and the Bay of Rio Can Be Seen in the Background, 2,200 Feet Below.
(Photos from Trimble.)

THE PRESIDENT OF BRAZIL, AMERICAN AMBASSADOR TO BRAZIL AND OFFICERS OF THE AMERICAN AND BRAZILIAN NAVIES ASSEMBLED IN CATTETE PALACE, THE EXECUTIVE MANSION OF BRAZIL.
In the Group, Left to Right, Seated, Are: Capt. Bostwick, U. S. N., U. S. Ambassador Edwin V. Morgan, His Excellency Wenceslau Braz P. Gomes, Admiral W. B. Caperton, U. S. N., Commanding the Pacific Fleet; Admiral Alexandrino Alencar, Minister of the Brazilian Marine; Capt. Williams, U. S. N., and Standing Beside Capt. Williams, Dr. Heli Lobo, Secretary to President Gomes, Who Recently Delivered a Series of Lectures in the United States on American and Brazilian Diplomacy.

DOROTHY HULL, A Doll-like Child of Three, Sitting in Front of a "Mercy Barrel" in Seattle to Aid in the City's Collections for the Red Cross. She Sat There Willingly Throughout the Day as Her Bit for the Red Cross Fund.

THE SMALLEST POILU IN THE ARMY BEFORE VERDUN.
(Pictorial Press.)

His Majesty Vagiravudh, King of Siam, First Absolute Monarchy and Sixteenth Nation to Join the Entente Against the Teutonic Allies.
(Underwood & Underwood.)

FRENCH SOLDIER, WHO LEFT A LEG ON THE BATTLEFIELD, RETURNS TO HIS HOME AFTER MANY WEEKS IN THE HOSPITAL, TO TAKE UP AGAIN THE TASK OF PROVIDING FOR HIS FAMILY.

Elderly French Woman, Returning, Hopes to Find Beneath the Fireplace of Her Now Ruined Home Her Savings and Trinkets, Which She Had Concealed There and Had No Time to Recover When Suddenly Driven Out by the Germans.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

"TEXAS" AND "PATSI," MASCOTS OF THE 60TH REGIMENT OF INFANTRY, ENCAMPED ON THE BATTLEFIELD OF GETTYSBURG, HAVE LEARNED TO SIT UP AT ATTENTION WHILE THE TROMBONE PLAYER PRACTICES THE "STAR-SPANGLED BANNER."
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

(© Underwood & Underwood.)