

FRANCIS, TWELFTH LAIRD OF MACNAB, Called Sir Henry Raeburn's Masterpiece, and by Many Regarded as One of the World's Finest Portraits of a Man,
Which Was Recently Sold at Auction to Sir Thomas
Dewar for $127,000, the Record Price for a Raeburn.

L. H. J. CARDINAL LUCON,
ARCHBISHOP OF RHEIMS, FRANCE, WHO REFUSES TO ABANDON HIS
ALL BUT RUINED CATHEDRAL, NOW
A SHELL OF ITS FORMER BEAUTY AND GREATNESS.
He Remains at His Post, Though the Population of Rheims Has Dwindled from 115,000 to 5,000, Practically All of Whom Inhabit Wine Cellars Far Under the Streets.

AN IDYLIC
SCENE BEHIND
THE SOMME FRONT,
THE WIFE AND MOTHER
REAPING THE HARVEST WHILE THE HUSBAND IS FIGHTING NOT FAR AWAY
FOR FRANCE.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

MISS YVONNE FITZROY,
Daughter of Sir Almeric and Lady Fitzroy, Who Has Just Received a High Military Decoration for Her War Work in the Scottish Women's Hospital in Rumania.
(© by E. O. Hoppe.)

MISS HELEN TAFT, DAUGHTER OF FORMER PRESIDENT AND MRS. WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT, AND NEW DEAN OF BRYN MAWR COLLEGE, AS A "FARM-ERETTE" ON BRYN MAWR'S WAR FARM AT WESTCHESTER, PENN.

Dean Taft, Who is Second from the Left, and Nineteen Other Girls Have Undertaken the Cultivation of Twenty Acres and Work
Daily from 8 to 5.
(© International Film Service.)

THE VIS-COUNTESS
INGESTRE,
Who Is Soon to Wed Richard Pennoyer, Second Secretary of the American Embassy in London.

Lady Ingestre is a daughter of the late
Lord Alexander Victor
Paget, and her little son is the grandson and heir of the Earl of Shrewsbury.
(© E. O. Hoppe.)

Lieut. Paul
Montariol of the French
Flying Corps Delivering a Lecture at the Mineola
Aviation
School on the Use of the Airplane
in Warfare.
(American
Press Assn.)

DAILY SCENE AT THE AMERICAN ARMY AVIATION SCHOOL, MINEOLA, L. I., FROM WHICH INSTRUCTORS OF AVIATION ARE GRADUATED EVERY FEW DAYS AND GO OUT TO TEACH FLYING IN OTHER CAMPS OF THE COUNTRY.

(Edwin Levitch)