

COLONEL THEODORE ROOSEVELT DELIVERING AN ADDRESS FROM THE VERANDA OF SAGAMORE HILL, HIS HOME

AT OYSTER BAY, TO THE PILGRIM SUFFRAGISTS, IN WHICH HE URGED THAT AMERICA SHOULD LEAD THE WORLD IN GRANTING TO WOMEN THE RIGHT TO VOTE.

(C. International Film Service.)

ALBERT SPALDING, AMERICAN VIOLINIST WHO HAS BEEN GIVING CONCERTS AT THE SECOND ENCAMPMENT OF THE FUTURE RESERVE OFFICERS, PLATTSBURG, N. Y., STANDING WITH OFFICERS OF THE TRAINING CAMP SCHOOL. In the Group, Left to Right, Are Col. Wolf, Commander at Plattsburg, Mr. Spalding, Capt. Baer, and Lieut. Moore. (White Studio.)

HARRY BARNHARDT, DIRECTOR OF THE COMMUNITY CHORUS, WHICH HAS SUNG IN CENTRAL PARK FOR THE LAST THREE YEARS, AT THE HEAD OF THE CHILDREN MEMBERS OF THE CHORUS WHO SING AS THEY MARCH TO THE MEETING PLACE ON THE MALL. (Paul Thompson.)

COLONEL ROOSEVELT, AND WITH HIM MRS. OGDEN MILLS REID, MRS. NORMAN DE R. WHITEHOUSE, AND MRS. JAMES LEES LAIDLAW, WHO MARCHED THE SUFFRAGIST PILGRIMS UP SAGAMORE HILL TO HEAR THE COLONEL SPEAK.

(C. International Film Service.)

FRANCIS OUIMET OF BOSTON, WESTERN AMATEUR GOLF CHAMPION, PUTTING ON THE TENTH GREEN OF THE BALTSUROL LINKS IN THE TRIUMPHANT RED CROSS TOURNAMENT PLAYED BY HIM AND JESSE GUILFORD AGAINST JEROME D. TRAVERS AND OSWALD KIRKBY.

In the Foreground, on the Green, Are Guilford and Travers, Kirkby Can Be Seen Standing at the Edge of the Green on the Extreme Right. (Lewin Leitch.)

MARION CHOATE, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Choate, Jr., and Granddaughter of the Late Joseph H. Choate, Picking Vegetables at the Ossining Home of Mrs. Juliette Low, Founder and National President of the Girl Scout Organization. (C. American Press Assn.)

TWO REAPERS, SIDE BY SIDE, IN TWO WIDELY DIFFERENT HARVEST FIELDS IN THE NORTH OF FRANCE. (C. International Film Service.)

STATUE OF FREDERICK THE GREAT, a Gift from the Present German Emperor, Which Stands in Front of the American War College Building in Washington. When the Statue Was Offered to the United States, in 1904, Its Acceptance Was Opposed by Senator Bacon on the Ground That Frederick the Great Represented Ideals Which Were Autocratic and Opposed to Those of the United States. (C. International Film Service.)