

THE SEVENTH REGIMENT, N. G. N. Y., MARCHING DOWN FIFTH AVENUE TO THE RAILWAY STATION TO EN-

TRAIN FOR CAMP WADSWORTH, SPARTANBURG, S. C., THE FIRST LAP OF ITS JOURNEY "OVER THE TOP" IN FRANCE.

(International Film Service.)

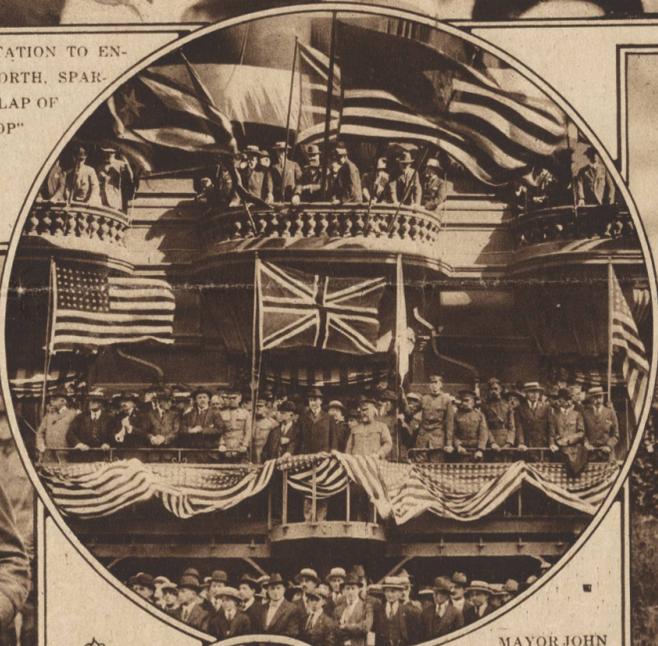

MOTHER, WIFE, SWEETHEART WATCHING THE BOYS OF THE SEVENTH REGIMENT AS THEY MARCHED AWAY TO THE WAR.

(Underwood & Underwood.)

COLONEL WILLARD C. FISK, COMMANDER OF THE SEVENTH REGIMENT, MARCHING AWAY AT THE HEAD OF HIS MEN.

(American Press Assoc.)

MAYOR JOHN PURROY MITCHEL, CITY OFFICIALS, AND ARMY OFFICERS REVIEWING THE DEPARTING SEVENTH REGIMENT FROM THE BALCONIES OF THE UNION LEAGUE CLUB.

(International Film Service.)

ENSIGN VINCENT ASTOR, U. S. N. R., AND MRS. ASTOR OBSERVING AN ARTILLERY BATTLE ON THE AISNE FRONT IN FRANCE.

Ensign Astor, who has recently been on Naval Patrol Duty in British and French Waters, received permission to join his wife in France where she has opened clubs for the use of American Sailors.

(Pictorial News.)

DRAFTED MEN OF NEW YORK CITY, OFF FOR CAMP UPTON, YAPHANK, L. I., CHEERING AND WAVING GOOD-BYE AS THEIR TRAIN PULLS OUT OF THE LONG ISLAND CITY STATION.

(Times Photo Service.)

NEW YORK CITY DRAFTED MAN, YAPHANK-BOUND, SAYING GOOD-BYE TO THE SMALLEST MEMBER OF HIS FAMILY CIRCLE.

(Times Photo Service.)

A MOTHER AND SISTER AND A NEW YORK DRAFTED MAN LEAVING FOR YAPHANK.

(Paul Thompson.)