

MISS MARGARET WOODROW WILSON, ELDEST DAUGHTER OF PRESIDENT
WILSON.
From a New Photograph.
(By Mishkin, from M. E. Brown.)

KING GEORGE V. TALKING WITH A MEMBER OF THE VICTORIOUS
AMERICAN TUG-OF-WAR TEAM WHICH CONTESTED WITH A BRITISH TEAM AT THE MILITARY FETE ON THE QUEEN'S PARADE DAY AT ALDERSHOT. QUEEN MARY CAN BE SEEN BEYOND THE TWO.
(Central News Photo Service.)

MRS. WALDORF ASTOR, FORMERLY MISS NANCY LANG
HORNE OF VIRGINIA, ACTING AS GUIDE TO KING GEORGE V. ON HIS RECENT PRIVATE VISIT TO THE HOSPITAL FOR WOUNDED
CANADIAN SOLDIERS AT CLIVEDEN, WILTSHIRE, THE RESIDENCE OF MR. AND MRS. WALDORF ASTOR.

A BRITISH MACHINE GUN OPERATING FROM THE EDGE OF THE SEA IN FLANDERS.
Homes of the Soldiers Tunnels in the Sand Dunes Can Be Seen in the Foreground.
(International Film Service.)

PAPP, OWNED BY GEORGE W. LOFT, WINNING THE CLASSIC FUTURITY STAKES AND A PURSE OF $15,450 AT BELMONT PARK, IN FAST TIME AND ON A HEAVY
TRACK, WITH ESCOBA SECOND, AND ROSIE
O'GRADY THIRD.
(Times Photo Service.)

ADMIRAL THAON DE REVEL OF THE ITALIAN NAVY
AND GENERAL HUMBERT OF THE FRENCH ARMY
AT A MILITARY OBSERVATION POST
ON THE AISNE FRONT.
(Universal Press.)

PRESIDENT AND MRS. WILSON
Boarding the Mayflower at Gloucester, Mass., After an Afternoon on the Golf Links as Guests of Col. E. M. House.
(International Film Service.)

A TRIO
OF AMER-ICAN AMBULANCE DRIVERS IN THE
FRENCH VILLAGE OF RABECOURT.
They Are, Left to Right: Albert Gilmore, Madison, Wis.; William Agar, New York City, Recently Mentioned in Official Dispatches for the French War Cross, and Sergeant G. Le Moyne, Washington and Jefferson College, Penn.
(Universal Film Service.)

LADY MAUD CAVENDISH,
Eldest Daughter of Governor General of Canada and the Duchess of Devonshire, Whose Engagement to Capt. Angus Mackintosh, A. D. C., Royal Horse Guards
Has Just Been Announced.
(Mackenzie & Callahan.)