

ITALIAN SOLDIERS OPERATING ON THE ISONZO FRONT A RAPID-FIRE GUN PROVIDED WITH A NEW TUBE SILENCER, RUNNING FROM THE MUZZLE OF THE GUN INTO THE GROUND NEARBY. (© Kadel & Herbert.)

VIEW OF THE KENSICO AERATOR OF THE CATSKILL AQUEDUCT, THE COMPLETION OF WHICH WILL BE CELEBRATED BY THE CITY OF NEW YORK ON OCTOBER 12, 13 and 14. The Aerator is 560 Feet Long, 250 Feet Wide, and Contains About 1,600 Nozzles Which Divide Water Into Fine Spray, Permitting Thorough Admixture of Oxygen and the Removal of Undesirable Gases Before Passing Into the Pipes for Transmission to the City.

MISS MABEL E. WITTE, Graduate of Vassar College and the New York Law School, and a Member of the New York Bar, Who Has Been Appointed Head of the School of Law for Women at Columbia University. (© International Film Service.)

ANNA WHEATON, IN "OH, BOY!" WHICH RECENTLY PASSED ITS TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTIETH PERFORMANCE AT THE PRINCESS THEATRE. (© Strass-Peyton Co.)

GOVERNORS OF NEW YORK AND OF NEW JERSEY AND MEMBERS OF THE NEW YORK-NEW JERSEY PORT AND HARBOR DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION MEET TO DEVISE PLANS FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF THE WATER WAYS OF THE METROPOLITAN DISTRICT. In the Group, Left to Right, First Row, Are: Frank B. Ford, DeWitt Van Buskirk, J. Spencer Smith, Governor Edge of New Jersey, Wm. R. Wilcox, Governor Whitman of New York, Arthur Curtiss James, Major General David C. Shanks, Major F. L. V. Hoppin, William Leary. Second Row: C. D. Mayhew, C. A. Ruhmann, B. F. Cresson, Jr., Julius Henry Cohen, Major General George W. Goethals, R. A. C. Smith, Charles W. Staniford, Colonel Myron Robinson, Captain Howard S. Borden, and Edward Anderberg. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

GROUP OF GIRLS, HEADED BY MISS MARGARET GATES, PRESENTING TO CAPTAIN HUDNUT FOR THE SECOND BATTERY, SIXTH FIELD ARTILLERY, NOW STATIONED AT FORT MYER, AN AMERICAN BROWN BEAR AS A MASCOT. Bruin Has Been Named "Miss Liberty," and Will Be Taken to France When the Battery Is Ordered There. (© International Film Service.)

Committee of New York Women Already Arranging to Provide Christmas Good Cheer for American Soldiers at the Front in France. In the Group Are, Left to Right: Mrs. Nelson H. Henry, Mrs. Adolph Ladenburg, Miss Grace La Rue, Miss Alice Carpenter, Mrs. John Purroy Mitchel, Mrs. Donn Barber, Mrs. Richard Hunt, and Mrs. Marcus Marks. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

MRS. JOHN F. HYLAN, Wife of the Tammany Nominee for Mayor, and Their Daughter, Miss Virginia Hylan. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

SERBIAN VOLUNTEERS FROM THE UNITED STATES REACH A FRENCH PORT ON THEIR WAY TO JOIN THE ARMIES OF THEIR MOTHER COUNTRY. They Were Mobilized Chiefly from Serbian Communities in Indiana and Are Captained by French Officers. They Carry With Them to the Serbian Front Three American Flags Consecrated in the Serbian Orthodox Church in Indianapolis Before Their Departure Nearly Three Months Ago.