

THE RED CROSS PARADE, BRINGING TOGETHER THE LARGEST BODY OF WAR NURSES EVER ASSEMBLED IN THIS COUNTRY, ESTIMATED AT 20,000, PASSING DOWN FIFTH AVENUE, CHEERED BY 300,000 PEOPLE.
(Times Photo Service.)

MISS MABEL T. BOARDMAN AND JACOB H. SCHIFF, BOTH NATIONAL RED CROSS OFFICIALS, MARCHING WITH THE WAR NURSES.
(Paul Thompson.)

MRS. JOHN PURROY MITCHEL, Wife of the Mayor of New York City, Marching at the Head of the New York Division of the Red Cross Parade.
(Times Photo Service.)

OFFICIAL REVIEWERS OF THE RED CROSS PARADE SALUTING THE PASSING COLORS.

In the Group, Left to Right, Are: Major Gen. Daniel Appleton, Governor Edge of New Jersey, General Eli Hoyle, Commanding the Department of the East; Mayor Mitchel, Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy, and Capt. Moffett, U. S. N., Commandant of the Great Lakes Training Station.
(Times Photo Service.)

HENRY P. DAVISON, Chairman of the National Red Cross War Council, Who Marched at the Head of the Council.
(© Western Newspaper Union.)

SURGEON GENERAL WILLIAM C. GORGAS, THE UNITED STATES ARMY'S MEDICAL CHIEF, MARCHING WITH MEMBERS OF THE NATIONAL RED CROSS WAR COUNCIL.
(Paul Thompson.)

MRS. HENRY L. HAAS AND TRISTAN, Both of Whom Saw Real War Service in France, Mrs. Haas as an Ambulance Driver and Tristan as a Red Cross Dog, at the Head of a Red Cross Unit.
(Times Photo Service.)

MRS. J. BORDEN HARRIMAN, Head of the Washington Ambulance Corps, Saluting the Official Reviewers in Front of the Public Library.
(Times Photo Service.)

LIEUTENANT JOHN PHILIP SOUSA'S GREAT LAKES TRAINING STATION BAND, 250 STRONG, LEADING THE RED CROSS PARADE.
(Times Photo Service.)