

REMARKABLE PHOTOGRAPH OF THE BLAZING WRECK OF ONE OF THE GERMAN GOTHA AIRPLANES WHICH RAIDED ENGLAND ON AUGUST 23, THE PILOT AND OBSERVER OF THE MACHINE HAVING PERISHED IN THE FLAMES WHILE THE MACHINE WAS DESCENDING. Of the Raiding Fleet of Gothas, Three Were Brought to Earth by British Gunfire from Land Batteries and Airplanes. The Machine Shown in Flames Here Lies in a Wheel Field on the Isle of Thanet, Off the County of Kent.

Russian Soldier Escapes to French Lines in German Uniform.

For Three Years He Was a Prisoner in Germany, and Was Sent to the Front to Dig Trenches, Receiving a German Uniform While Engaged in This Work. He Seized the First Opportunity to Escape to the French Side.

CADET H. R. H. PRINCE CHARLES THEODORE OF BELGIUM, Second Son of King Albert of the Belgians, Who Has Joined England's Fighting Forces on the Sea. (Otis F. Wood, Inc.)

GROUP OF AMERICAN AMBULANCE DRIVERS ON THE FRENCH FRONT HAVING A SPECIAL HOLIDAY AND CELEBRATION, FOR WHICH THE FRENCH COMMANDER IN THAT SECTOR CONTRIBUTED A CASE OF CHAMPAGNE.

In the Group Are: "Jack" Platt, B. Bowie, J. MacDonnell, "Kit" Carson, Evanson, Ill.; Lieutenant Delibaule, J. F. Brown, Boston; Cathaway, Prof. Fletcher, Rose, Chicago; Robert Meecham, Cleveland; William Agar, New York City; Grant, Blatchford Downing, Kansas City, Mo.; Lewis, Madison, Wis.; John Livingston, Chicago; Wilberforce Taylor, Hubbards Grove, Ill.; Paul Welcher, Cleveland; Conover, Albert Gilmore, Madison Wis.; "Red" Woodhouse, George Shaw, "Jack" Moore, California; Paul Lovett, Boston; Le Moyne Sargent, Joseph Keyes, Concord, N. H., and "Bob" Chambers.

RUSSIAN YOUNG MEN AND BOYS, SOME OF WHOM ARE STILL IN THEIR EARLY TEENS, ENROLLING FOR A NEW "BATTALION OF DEATH," ONE OF THE UNITS OF THE "YOUNG RUSSIA CORPS," NOW BEING FORMED. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

FRENCH SOLDIERS, ON THE FIRST FIGHTING LINE, THROWING HAND GRENADES INTO GERMAN TRENCHES LESS THAN A DOZEN YARDS AWAY. (© Press Illustrating Service.)

REV. DR. WALLACE BUTTRICK OF NEW YORK, HEAD OF THE ROCKEFELLER GENERAL EDUCATIONAL BOARD, AND THE RT. HON. SIR F. E. SMITH, K. C., MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT AND MAYOR OF BLACKPOOL, LEADING THE PROCESSION IN THE CELEBRATION OF ANGLo-AMERICAN DAY HELD AT BLACKPOOL, ENGLAND. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

PRINCE HENRY, Third Son of King George V., Now a Cadet of the Eton Officers' Training Corps. (© Otis F. Wood.)

MEN OF FRENCH AIR BATTERIES SUSPEND MODEL AIRPLANES TO BE SHOT AT IN TARGET PRACTICE. The Crossbeam Is So Attached to the Tree That the Dummy Planes May be Rapidly Revolved About it, Thereby increasing Their Value as Targets. (Pictorial Press.)