

REMARKABLE PHOTOGRAPH OF AMERICAN TROOPS IN FRANCE PASSING OVER AN ANCIENT HISTORIC BRIDGE, DATING FROM THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY, OVER WHICH THE TROOPS OF CHARLES THE BOLD PURSUED THE ARMY OF LOUIS XI.
(© International Film Service.)

NEW-EST LONDON REINFORCED CONCRETE BOMB-PROOF, ERECTED IN LONDON BACKYARDS AS A REFUGE FOR THE PEOPLE AGAINST GERMAN AIR RAIDERS. From a British Official Photograph.
(© U. & U.)

BRITISH "TANK," FRESH FROM ACTIVE SERVICE ON THE MUDDY BATTLEFIELDS OF FLANDERS, REACHES NEW YORK TO TAKE ITS PLACE BESIDE THE GERMAN U-BOAT IN CENTRAL PARK.
(© International Film Service.)

THE HIGHEST FRENCH CIVIL AND MILITARY OFFICIALS VIEWING THE AMERICAN TROOPS IN FRANCE MARCHING PAST THEM. Standing Together in Front, Left to Right, Are: General Pershing, American Commander; a French Officer, and Members of the Staffs of General Pershing and Himself.
(Pictorial Press.)

PRESIDENT POINCARÉ OF THE FRENCH REPUBLIC, PREMIER PAINLEVÉ, GENERAL PETAIN, COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE FRENCH ARMIES, AND GENERAL PERSHING, THE AMERICAN COMMANDER, INSPECTING THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE.
(Pictorial Press.)

QUEEN VICTORIA OF SPAIN PLAYING TENNIS AT SANTANDER.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

GERMAN SUBMARINE C-5, LENT TO THE UNITED STATES BY THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT, AND RECHRISTENED THE "U-BUY-A-BOND," INSTALLED ON A KNOLL IN THE CENTRAL PARK SHEEP MEADOW, WHERE IT AT ONCE BECAME A RALLYING POINT FOR THE SALE OF THE SECOND LIBERTY BONDS.
(Times Photo Service.)