

VIEW OF THE CAMP IN THE NORTH OF RUSSIA OF A NEW REGIMENT OF WOMEN SOLDIERS, 2,500 IN NUMBER, WHO ARE BEING TRAINED FOR THE TRENCHES BY MAJOR CROFFOFF. They Are Enduring All of the Hardships and Privations of Men in Military Training. They Live in Dog Tents, Sleep on the Ground, Eat the Regular Army Food, and Undergo the Same Training as Men in Trench Warfare. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

(International Film Service.)

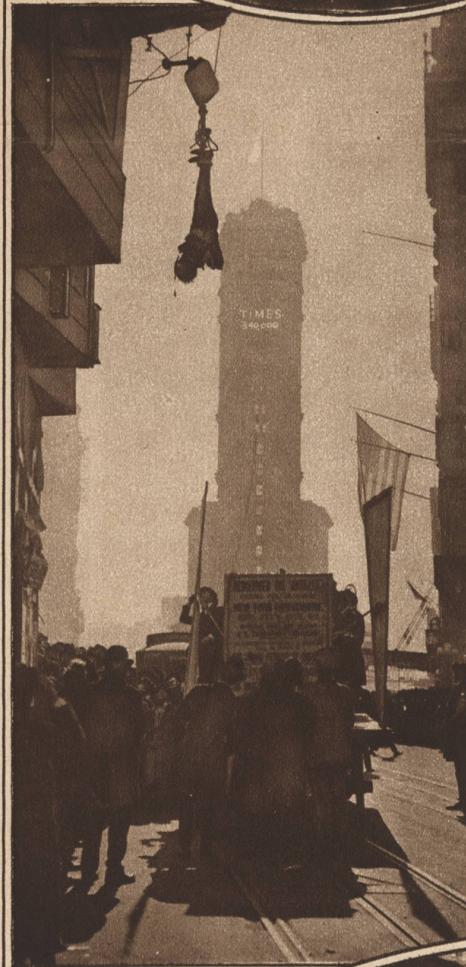

CHILDREN OF THE DUKE AND DUCHESS OF MANCHESTER, the Latter Formerly Miss Helen Zimmerman, Daughter and Heiress of the Late Eugene Zimmerman of Cincinnati. The Eldest Child Is the Viscount Mandeville, to Whom His Grandfather's Fortune Is Expected to Descend.

THE DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE, GOVERNOR GENERAL OF CANADA, AND THE DUCHESS, WITH THEIR HOUSE GUESTS ASSEMBLED BEFORE THE CANADIAN GOVERNMENT HOUSE, OTTAWA, ON THE MORNING OF THE WEDDING OF LADY MAUD CAVENDISH, THE DUKE'S ELDEST DAUGHTER, TO CAPTAIN ANGUS MCINTOSH. In the Group, Left to Right, Standing, Are: Sir James Aikins, Lady Hendrie, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, Sir John Hendrie, and Lady Le Blanc. Standing, First Row: Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, Lady Spring-Rice, Lady Mary Kenyon Slaney, Lord Charles Cavendish, Bishop of Quebec; Mrs. Angus McIntosh, Bride, Formerly Lady Maud Caverdish; Captain McIntosh, Bridegroom; Lady Dorothy Cavendish, Lady Blanche Cavendish, Miss Emery of New York, Lady Rachel Cavendish, Sir E. Le Blanc; Second Row: Captain R. Kenyon Slaney, Miss Enid Hendrie, Hon. T. Spring-Rice, Captain Bulkeley Johnston, Miss Saunders, Lieut. Col. Henderson, Miss Whitridge of New York, Miss Walton, and Lord Richard Nevill. (British & Colonial Press.)

CAPTAIN ANGUS MCINTOSH AND BRIDE, Formerly Lady Maud Cavendish, Eldest Daughter of the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, Immediately After Their Wedding at Ottawa, Canada, a Week Ago. (British & Colonial Press.)

HOUDINI RELEASING HIMSELF FROM A STRAIT-JACKET

While Suspended from a Crane at the North End of Times Square to Advertise a Benefit at the Hippodrome Tonight Under the Auspices of the Junior Patriots for the Relief of Widows, Orphans, and Dependent Mothers and Sisters of the Men Lost on the U. S. S. Antilles. (Times Photo Service.)

TREES ON THE WEST FRONT IN FRANCE DESTROYED BY RETREATING GERMANS. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

COLONEL THEODORE ROOSEVELT WITH A GROUP OF BOY SCOUTS OF NASSAU COUNTY TO WHOM HE PRESENTED MEDALS AT SAGAMORE HILL FOR THE WORK DONE BY THEM IN SELLING LIBERTY BONDS. (Times Photo Service.)

VIEW WITHIN A BRITISH WAR SUPPLY DEPOT WHERE THERE ARE THOUSANDS OF GALLON JARS TO BE FILLED WITH RUM FOR MEN IN THE TRENCHES. (© Underwood & Underwood.)