

LENINE AND TROTZKY IN A GROUP OF BOLSHEVIKI LEADERS
Russia's Radical "Premier," Nikolai Lenine, is the man with a long beard at the right. Leon Trotzky, the Bolsheviki "Foreign Minister," stands next to him. The photograph was taken beside the grave of a rebel killed during rioting in the first attempt to overthrow Kerensky's government.

(Photos by Donald Thompson, from Central News Photo Service.)

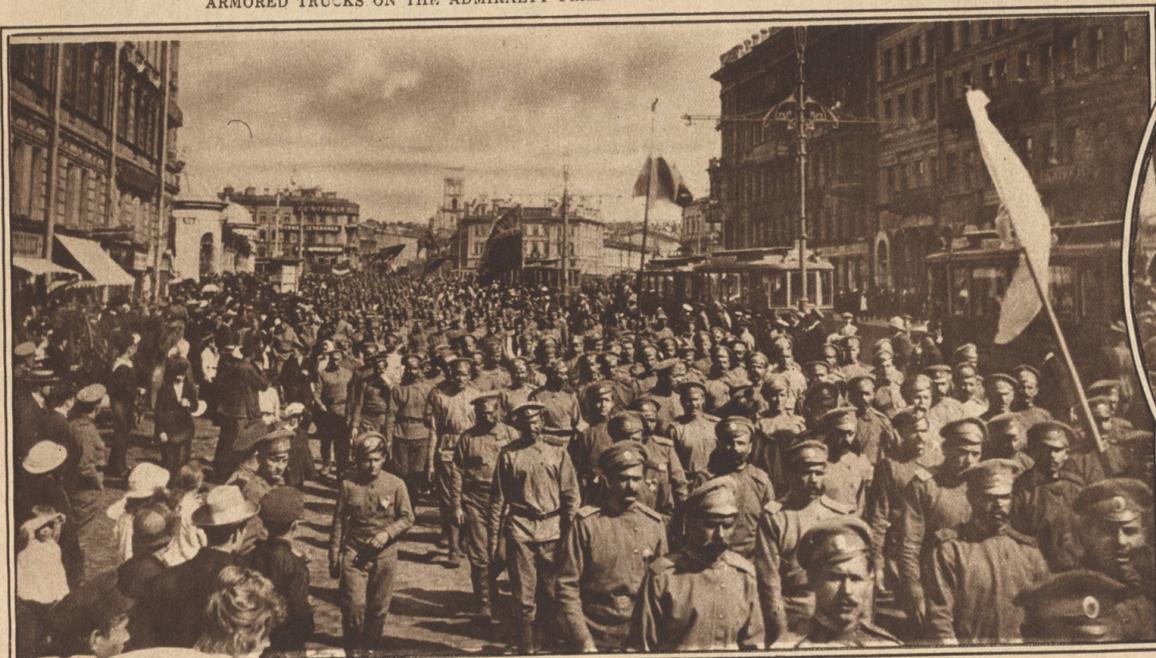

NIKOLAI LENINE
SPEAKING TO A CROWD
OF HIS FOLLOWERS IN PETROGRAD BEFORE HE WENT INTO HIDING FROM KERENSKY.

REVOLUTIONARY DEMONSTRATION NEAR THE RUSSIAN ADMIRALTY BUILDING.

ARMORED TRUCKS ON THE ADMIRALTY PLAZA.

KRONSTADT SOLDIERS MARCHING THROUGH PETROGRAD LAST JULY, WHEN LENINE WAS FIRST ATTEMPTING TO OVERTHROW THE NEW GOVERNMENT.

CAPTAIN OF THE 56TH REGIMENT COMMITTEE ADDRESSING KRONSTADT SOLDIERS IN FRONT OF A BANNER INSCRIBED: "WE WANT LAND, LIBERTY AND PEACE."