

SCENE IN A BELGIAN MUNITIONS FACTORY WHERE PRACTICALLY ALL THE WORK IS DONE BY BELGIAN GIRLS.
From a Belgian Official Photograph.

"WOMAN AND CHILD"—BY MARIE D. PAGE.

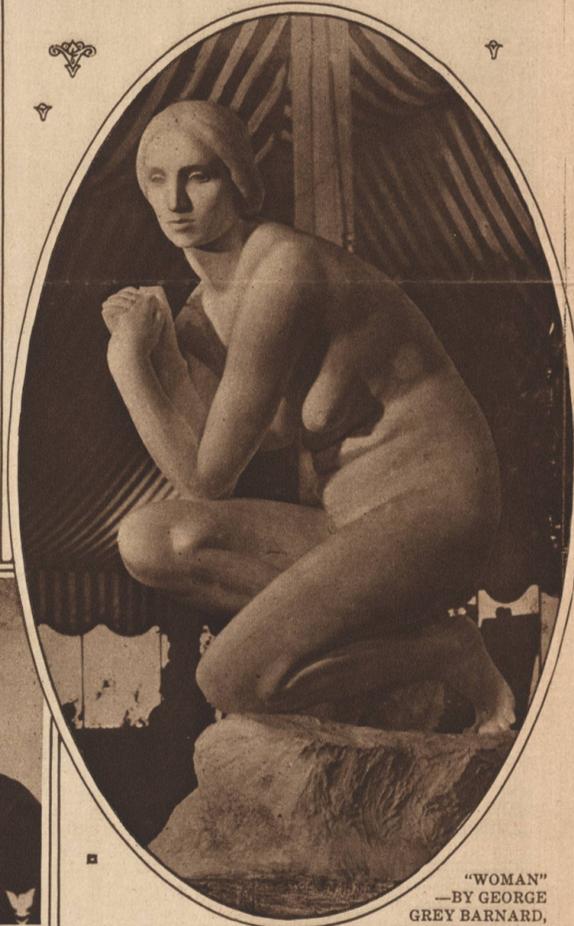

This and the Accompanying Painting Are to be Shown at the Winter Exhibition of the National Academy of Design, Opening on Next Saturday.

(Peter A. Juley.)

"LOOKING INTO THE LITTLE SOUTHERN ROOM"—BY CHILDE HASSAM.

(Peter A. Juley.)

"WOMAN"—BY GEORGE GREY BARNARD.

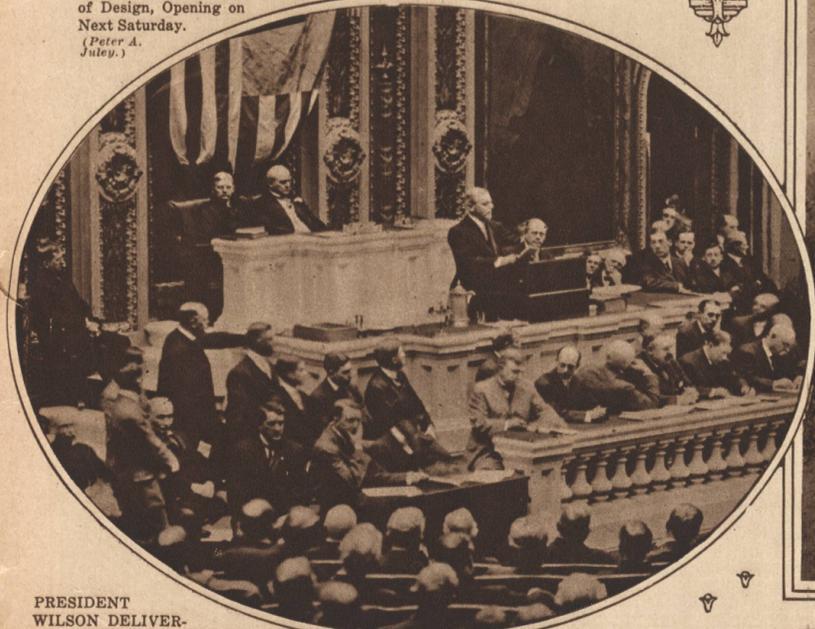

Other Works by Sculptors of the Allied Countries at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel in Aid of War Relief Funds. Mr. Barnard is the Designer of the Much Discussed Statue of Abraham Lincoln Recently Erected in Cincinnati, a Replica of Which is to be Presented to England.

(© Paul Thompson.)

"ERNIE" SHORE, Crack Twirler for the Boston "Red Sox," Who Has Enlisted in the United States Navy.

(International Film Service.)

PRESIDENT WILSON DELIVERING HIS MESSAGE TO CONGRESS ON LAST TUESDAY, IN WHICH HE STATED THE AIMS OF AMERICA IN THE WORLD CONFLICT, AND CALLED FOR A DECLARATION OF WAR AGAINST AUSTRIA-HUNGARY.

(© Clinedinst, Underwood & Underwood.)

MRS. OWEN JOHNSON, Wife of the New York Author, Visiting an American Camp on the West Front in France.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

KING GEORGE V. AND QUEEN MARY, ON THEIR RECENT TRIP THROUGH THE WEST OF ENGLAND, CHATTING WITH GIRL MUNITION WORKER IN A PLANT AT BATH.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)