

SWARM OF HOMING PIGEONS LEAVING THEIR CAMOUFLAGED CAGE BEHIND THE FRENCH FRONT, EACH WITH ITS MESSAGE FOR A DIFFERENT PART OF THE BATTLEFIELD.
(Underwood & Underwood.)

WILLIAM H. HARDY, the Aged Sailor of Portland, Oregon, Who Is Sole Survivor of Commodore Perry's First Expedition to Japan in 1853, Planting an Oregon Pine Near the Perry Monument at Uruga on His Recent Visit to Japan as a Guest of Japanese School Children. Mr. Hardy Is Said to be the Only Foreigner Who Has Been Allowed to Enter Japan Without a Passport Since the War Began, and Also the Only Private Citizen of Any Land Who Has Been Received by the Emperor of Japan.

MEMBERS OF THE GUARD OF HONOR AT THE WEDDING OF LIEUTENANT J. H. BUDD, BRITISH ARMY, FORMING AN ARCHWAY OF CRUTES AT THE DOOR OF ST. JOHN'S CHURCH, OXFORD SQUARE, LONDON. THE GUARD CAME TO THE CHURCH IN AMBULANCES.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

MR. HARDY AND MISS KATSU YAMAMOTO, the Japanese Girl at Whose Suggestion He Revisited Japan After Sixty-four Years. With Them Is Said to be the Only Surviving Official of the Old Shogunate Government of Japan, Wiped Out by the Revolution of 1867-68.

SAILOR WILLIAM H. HARDY Dons the Japanese National Costume for the Reception Given, by the Japanese in His Honor at the Tokio Hotel.

WOUNDED CANADIAN SOLDIER, NOW IN A LONDON HOSPITAL, CASTING HIS VOTE IN THE GENERAL CANADIAN ELECTION HELD ON LAST MONDAY.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

GERMAN "PILL-BOX" COMPLETELY OVERTURNED BY A FRENCH SHELL, DISCLOSING THE IRON RAIL FOUNDATIONS.

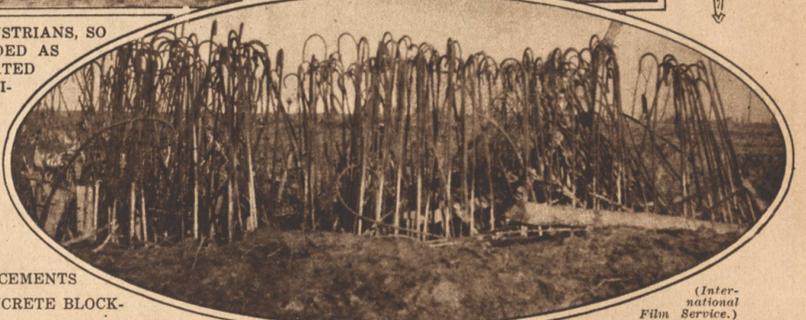

The Water-Filled Hole Made by the Explosion Can Be Seen in the Foreground.
(International Film Service.)

JAMES J. STORROW, FUEL ADMINISTRATOR OF MASSACHUSETTS, OPENING THE "CUT-A-CORD" MOVEMENT TO SAVE COAL, ON HIS ESTATE AT LINCOLN, MASS. ASSISTED BY MANY OF HIS NEIGHBORS, INCLUDING WOMEN MEMBERS OF THE "CUT-A-CORD CLUB."
(Western Newspaper Union.)

GERMANS AND AUSTRIANS, SO SEVERELY WOUNDED AS TO BE INCAPACITATED FOR FURTHER MILITARY SERVICE, RETURNING TO THEIR HOMES BY WAY OF HAPARANDA, SWEDEN.
(© Kadel & Herbert.)

STEEL REINFORCEMENTS FOR A NEW CONCRETE BLOCK-HOUSE OR "PILL-BOX" HURRIEDLY DESERTED BY THE GERMANS DURING THE FRENCH OFFENSIVE ON THE AISNE.
(International Film Service.)