

ELLEN WILSON McADOO, Daughter of Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. William G. McAdoo and Only Granddaughter of President Wilson, at a White House Window, from Which Had Been Displayed for the First Time a Red Cross Flag Which Contained Smaller Crosses, Indicating That Three Members of the President's Household Have Joined the Active Service of the Red Cross.

GEORGES ROY, ARMLESS AND BLIND FRENCH SOLDIER, WINNER OF THE WAR CROSS, THE MILITARY MEDAL, THE LEGION OF HONOR, AND A BRIDE.

POILU "NONCOM." HALTING TO REST IN THE RAILWAY STATION AT CHALONS, CHAMPAGNE, TAKES THE HINT FROM ONE OF THE DECORATIVE PLASTER STATUES, DESIGNED BY NOTED FRENCH ARTISTS AND ERECTED BY THE JOINT FRENCH AND AMERICAN COMMITTEE, WHICH HAS ALREADY BEGUN TO BEAUTIFY THE REOCCUPIED TERRITORY OF FRANCE.

FRENCH SOLDIER EXHIBITING TO HIS FRIEND AND SUPERIOR OFFICER A BRACE OF WILD DUCKS HE HAS JUST KILLED AMONG THE FLANDERS LOWLANDS.

THE LAST RESTING-PLACE OF AUGUSTE RODIN, FRENCH SCULPTOR, IN THE RODIN VAULT NEAR HIS HOME AT MEUDON. The Marble Tomb Is Covered with Flowers, and Before It Is a Replica of His Famous Statue, "The Thinker."

STANDARDS OF THE FRENCH REGIMENT WHICH TOOK PART IN THE GREAT TRIUMPHANT DRIVE ON THE AISNE, LATE IN OCTOBER, PASSING IN REVIEW BEFORE GENERAL PETAIN, THE FRENCH COMMANDER IN CHIEF.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS IN FRANCE UNLOADING SECTIONS OF THEIR "KNOCK-DOWN" WINTER QUARTERS WHICH WERE SHIPPED FROM THE UNITED STATES.

ARMY ENGINEERS ERECTING WINTER QUARTERS FOR AMERICAN OVERSEAS FORCES FROM SECTIONS OF "KNOCK-DOWN" HOUSES TRANSPORTED TO FRANCE FROM THIS COUNTRY.