

AFTER PART OF ONE OF THE TWIN-SCREW CONCRETE SHIPS UNDER CONSTRUCTION IN SECTIONS AT IVRY-ON-THE-SEINE, NEAR PARIS.

The Need for Coastwise and River Vessels Has Caused the French to Resort to the Use of Concrete in Shipbuilding, as Yielding the Quickest Results, a Suggestion Which Is Said to Have Come from the United States. (French Official Photograph.)

FRENCH OBSERVATION POST BUILT OF CONCRETE AGAINST A TREE ON THE ROAD TO ROSIERES. Slits Have Been Provided So That the Road May Be Observed in Both Directions by the Sentinel Inside. (French Official Photograph.)

OFFICERS OF THE AERO CLUB OF FRANCE AND A GROUP OF "ACES" MEN OF THE FRENCH FLYING CORPS WHO HAVE BROUGHT DOWN FIVE OR MORE ENEMY AIRPLANES. TO WHOM THE AERO CLUB HAS PRESENTED GOLD MEDALS.

In The Group, Left to Right, Are Seated: Captain Personne, Premier "Ace"; Lieutenant Ballaco, M. Deutsch de la Meurthe, Senator Gaston Monier, and M. L. Weiller, Member of the Chamber of Deputies. Standing: Ortole, Chaput, Dascher, Commander Malherbe, M. d'Aubigny, Pegut, Apeil, Lieutenant Thierry (Navy), Commander Leclerc, Chief of the Air Service of Paris. (Kadel & Herbert.)

FRENCH ARTILLERY OBSERVATION MOUND IN THE VOSGES MOUNTAINS.

(© International Film Service.)

HAZEN KELLY of the Syracuse University Unit, Who Has Been Voted the Champion Hand Grenade Twirler of the American Forces in His Encampment in France.

(© International Film Service.)

MILITARY AND CIVILIAN OFFICIALS OF THE CITY OF MILAN ASSEMBLED IN THE MUSOCCO CEMETERY TO DECORATE THE GRAVES OF ITALIAN OFFICERS AND SOLDIERS KILLED IN RECENT CAMPAIGNS.

A City Official of Milan Is Speaking Beside One of the Newly Made, Flower-Covered Graves. (Underwood & Underwood.)

"UNCLE SAM TO THE RESCUE."

A Conception by M. G. Boudard, French Artist, Now Recovering from Wounds Received in Battle. (© International Film Service.)

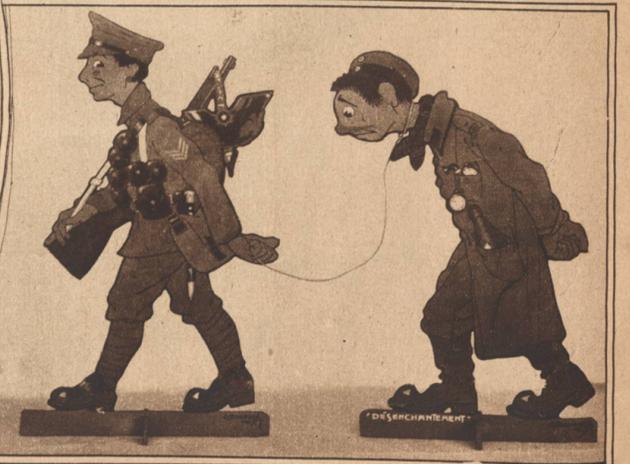

GENERAL SIR ARTHUR CURRIE, Commanding the Canadian Forces on the West Front in France, Visiting the Exhibition of Canadian War Photographs in Paris. He Is Said to be One of the Largest Men in the Army Which He Commands. (© International Film Service.)

FRENCH CHILDREN, LONG REFUGEES FROM THE AISNE BATTLEFIELDS, AT SCHOOL AGAIN ON THEIR NATIVE SOIL, THROUGH THE EFFORTS OF THE AMERICAN WOMEN OF THE "FUND FOR FRENCH WOUNDED," WHICH IS MAKING HABITABLE AGAIN THE RECAPTURED SECTIONS OF FRANCE. (Pictorial Press.)

"A FLOWER VENDOR OF THE BOULEVARDS," AS HE APPEARS TO M. BOUDARD, BACK IN PARIS FROM THE WAR.

"DISENCHANTMENT" M. BOUDARD'S FORECAST. ID.