

BRITISH SEAPLANE FLYING AT TOP SPEED, DASHES FROM A CLOUD INTO A 350-FOOT LATTICE STEEL MAST OF A SHORE WIRELESS STATION, THE PLANE'S ENGINES BEING JAMMED FAST INTO THE INTERSTICES OF THE GIRDERS.

The Pilot Was Thrown Unconscious to One of the Planes, Where He Lay, 300 Feet Above the Ground, Until Rescued by Three British Bluejackets Who Climbed Up Inside the Mast, Fastened a Rope Around His Body, and Lowered Him to Safety, Each Sailor Receiving Therefor the Albert Medal.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

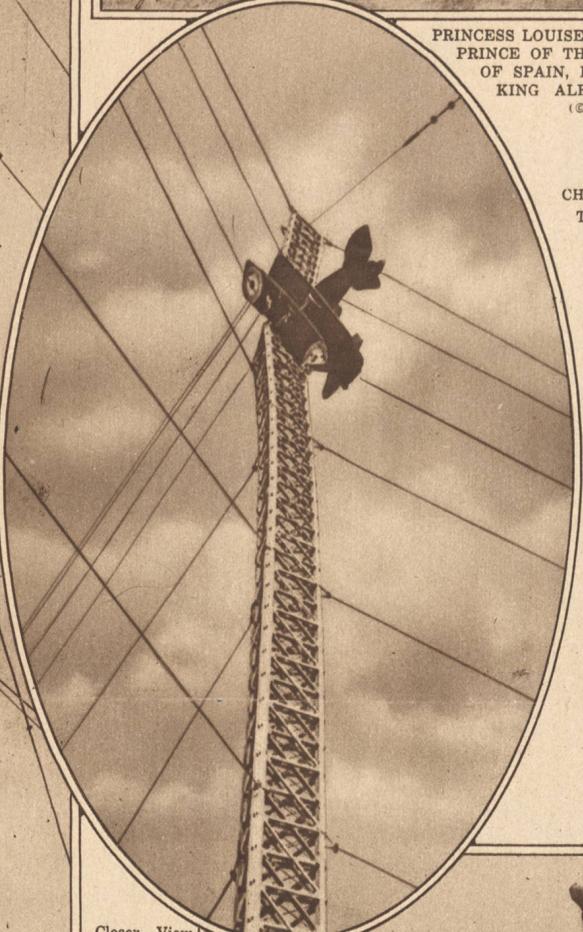

PRINCESS LOUISE AND THE INFANT ALFONSO, PRINCE OF THE ASTURIAS, CROWN PRINCE OF SPAIN, RIDING TO THE HARRIERS ON KING ALFONSO'S HUNTING PRESERVES.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

CHILDREN OF MAJOR AND MRS. THEODORE ROOSEVELT, JR., AND GRAND-CHILDREN OF COLONEL ROOSEVELT. They Are, Left to Right: Theodore Roosevelt, 3d, Grace, and Cornelius Roosevelt.
(Walter Scott Shinn.)

(Western Newspaper Union.)

Closer View of the Entrapped Seaplane, Giving an Idea of the Impact, Which Badly Damaged the Steel Mast and Held Fast at Right Angles to It the Body of the Plane.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

MEMBERS OF THE SPANISH ROYAL FAMILY ATTENDING THE ANNUAL DISTRIBUTION OF CLOTHING TO THE POOR OF MADRID. In the Foreground Are: Maria Christine, Queen Mother of Spain, Princess Maria Isabella, and the Little Princesses Beatrice and Christine; in the Background, Queen Victoria Eugenia and the Bishops of Madrid — Alcala, Toledo, and Nonce.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

YOUNG MASCOT OF A RUMANIAN REGIMENT DELIVERING AN ADDRESS BEFORE THE RUMANIAN KING AND QUEEN, HIGH OFFICIALS OF STATE, AND COMMANDERS OF RUMANIAN TROOPS.

GERALDINE FARRAR CALLING ON MARY GARDEN, WHO IS WEARING A COSTUME OF THAIS IN WHICH SHE MADE HER SCREEN DEBUT.

FRANCES ALDA, OF THE METROPOLITAN OPERA COMPANY. From a New Photograph Taken at Her Home.
(© Walter Scott Shinn.)