

Newest War Posters Call to
Service at Home and Abroad

ARMY RECRUITING POSTER—BY HARVEY DUNN.

THE CALL OF THE SEA—BY HOWARD CHANDLER CHRISTY.

This and the Accompanying War Posters Are Among Those Just Selected by the Division of Pictorial Publicity, Which Charles Dana Gibson Directs for the Committee on Public Information.

(Times Photo Service.)

WAGONS HAULING COAL OVER LONG ISLAND SOUND FROM AN ICE-LOCKED SCHOONER BOUND FROM NEW YORK TO OYSTER BAY WHEN MINUS ZERO WEATHER DROPPED DOWN UPON HER.

(© International Film Service.)

THE Y. W. C. A. POSTER—BY W. T. BENDA. "STAND BEHIND THE COUNTRY'S GIRLHOOD."

THE S. S. FLORIZEL, FORMER PASSENGER LINER BETWEEN NEW YORK AND HALIFAX, N. S., SMASHING ICE FIELDS IN RARITAN BAY, NEAR SANDY HOOK, TO OPEN A PATH TO NEW YORK FOR THE MOVEMENT OF COAL BARGES TIED UP AT PERTH AMBOY, N. J.

(© International Film Service.)

FOOD POSTER—BY J. E. SHERIDAN.

A REAL POILU, STEEL HELMET AND ALL, ON FIFTH AVENUE. His Furlough Having Expired, He Is Hurrying from the Lively Scenes of the American Metropolis to "No Man's Land" and His Duty in His Beloved France.

(© Western Newspaper Union.)

CHILDREN OF LOWER MANHATTAN DIGGING FOR BITS OF COAL AND COKE IN ONE OF THE ASH DUMPS ON THE $12,000,000 SITE OF THE CITY'S PROPOSED COURT HOUSE.

(© Western Newspaper Service.)