

GERMAN DISPATCH DOG, APPARENTLY UNAFRAID AMID THE BURSTING SHELLS IN THE FRONT LINE TRENCHES, HURRYING TO THE REAR WITH A MESSAGE ASKING FOR REINFORCEMENTS.

From a Photograph Found in the Pocket of a Captured German Officer.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

NEW FRENCH "145" MOVING TO THE FRONT ON RUBBER-TIRED WHEELS. THE RUBBER, ONLY RECENTLY SO USED BY THE FRENCH, SERVING ALSO AS RECOIL PADS FOR THE GREAT FIELD PIECE.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

FRIEND OR FOE? BRITISH OBSERVER FOR AN ANTI-AIRCRAFT BATTERY SEARCHING OUT A DISTANT AIRPLANE.
(© Underwood & Underwood.)

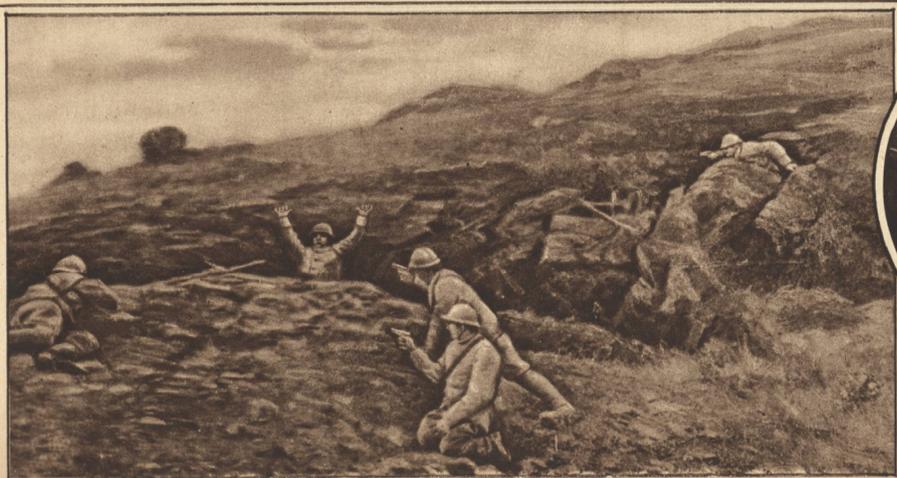

BRITISH "TOMMY," ON THE WEST FRONT, BRINGING IN TWO CAPTIVES, THE "MAKINGS" OF A SUNDAY DINNER FOR HIMSELF AND MESSMATES.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

FRENCH OFFICIAL PHOTOGRAPHERS TAKING AN ACTUAL BATTLE SCENE. AT THE IMMINENT RISK OF THEMSELVES, FOR PRESERVATION IN THE ARCHIVES OF FRANCE.

A GERMAN SOLDIER, COVERED AT CLOSE RANGE BY FRENCH SOLDIERS WITH PISTOLS, SURRENDERING WITH HANDS HIGH ABOVE HIS HEAD.
(© International Film Service.)

A "CLOSE-UP" OF GERMAN TRENCHES ON THE FRENCH FRONT, TWO GERMAN SOLDIERS BEING DISTINCTLY VISIBLE THROUGH THE BARBED WIRE ENTANGLEMENTS.
(© Kadet & Herbert.)

(Underwood & Underwood.)