

POLICE
COMMISSIONER RICHARD
E. ENRIGHT, FORMERLY A LIEUTENANT IN THE UNIFORMED
FORCE, APPOINTED BY
MAYOR JOHN F. HYLAN HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENT IN SUCCESSION TO FREDERICK H. BUGHER.
Commissioner Enright is shown at his desk at Police Headquarters surrounded by flowers sent by friends immediately on the announcement of his appointment.

(Times Photo Service.)

AMERICAN GIRL WHO,
WITH THOUSANDS OF
HER SISTERS ON BOTH SIDES OF THE ATLANTIC,
HAS BECOME A MUNI-
TIONS WORKER AS HER
"BIT" IN THE GREAT WAR.

(Gullams Service.)

GERALDINE FARRAR, IN "MME. BUTTERFLY,"

At the Metropolitan Opera House.

(© 1918, Victor Geava.)

DONSILVERIA,
Owned by Mrs. David Sturdevant of Boston, Adjudged the Best Cat in the Recent Specialty
Exhibit of the Silver Society of the American Cat Association.

(Times Photo Service.)

SILVER
ECHO,

Exhibited by Miss Carroll Macy of Ash Point, Me., the Best Kitten in the Silver Society's Exhibit.

(Paul Thompson.)

LADY LAVERY,
Formerly Mrs. Edward Livingston-Trudeau, Jr. of Chicago,
Wife of Sir John Lavery, English Artist.
From a Recent Portrait Study After Holbein.

(© Hoppe.)

ANDREAS PAVLEY IN A SCENE FROM THE BALLET OF MASSENET'S "CLEOPATRE," TO BE SUNG HERE BY THE CHICAGO OPERA COMPANY.

(Charlotte Fairchild.)