

FRENCH DRAGOONS MOVE FORWARD THROUGH THE LIBERATED CITY OF NOYON.

(French Pictorial Service.)

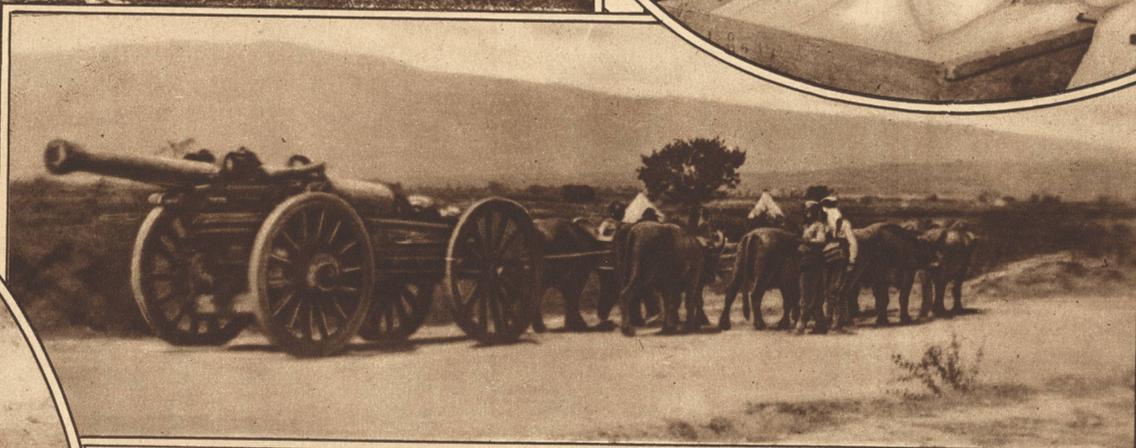

BATTERY OF PLOWS DRAWN BY MOTOR TRACTORS FOLLOWING LIBERATED LANDS OF FRANCE UNDER THE DIRECTION OF A FRENCH OFFICER IN STEEL HELMET, ASSIGNED TO THIS WORK BY THE FRENCH DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

MRS. W. T. COLEMAN OF BOSTON AND MRS. W. E. RHINE OF DETROIT Packing Kits at One of the War Relief Stations in Paris for American Soldiers at the Front.

(© International Film Service.)

HUGE FIELD PIECE IS DRAWN TO ITS POSITION AMONG THE MACEDONIAN MOUNTAINS BY A TEAM OF EIGHT OXEN.

(© International Film Service.)

SERGT. MAJOR FLORA SANDES, an Irish Girl Who, for Nearly Two Years, Has Been Fighting as a Private and "Non-Com" with the Serbian Army. She Has Received the Highest Serbian Decoration Open to Private Soldiers.

(© Central News Photo Service.)

SPANISH GOVERNMENTAL MISSION, ON A VISIT TO THE WAR ZONE IN FRANCE, GROUPED BEFORE THE STATUE OF JOAN OF ARC WHICH STANDS UNSCATHED AMID THE RUIN AND DESOLATION WHICH LIE ON THE CITY OF RHEIMS AND ITS CATHEDRAL.

(French Pictorial Service.)