

FIVE THOUSAND AMERICAN ARTILLERYMEN, IN TRAINING FOR SERVICE IN FRANCE, MOBILIZING ON THEIR DRILL FIELD AT CAMP HANCOCK, AUGUSTA, GA., FOR EXERCISES AND REVIEW.
(© Committee on Public Information.)

PRIVATE GEORGE E. MARQUET of New York City, Who Volunteered in the French Army at the Beginning of the war and Who Won the French War Cross at Verdun, Where He Received His Third Wound. He Has Arrived in New York on a Four Months' Sick Leave After Having Passed Five Months in a French War Hospital.

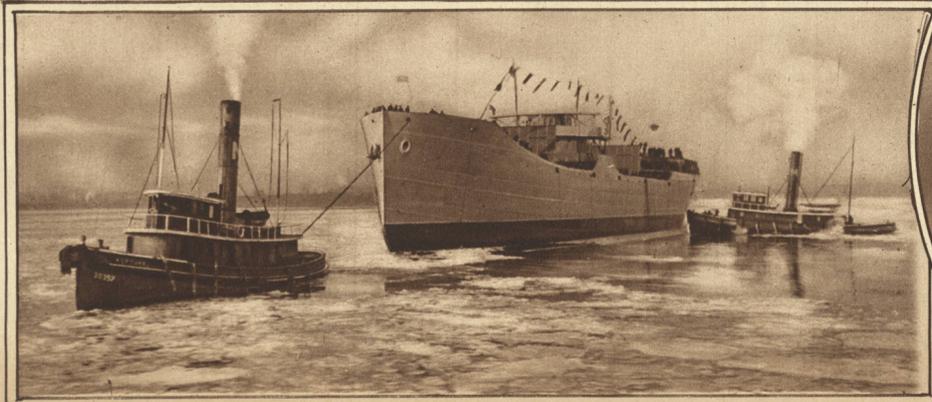

"THE BOUNCING BABY"—BY HILDA BELCHER, To Which Was Awarded the Alexander Hudnut Prize at the Current Fifty-first Annual Exhibition of the American Water Color Society at the National Arts Club. (Times Photo Service.)

MRS. COFFIN VAN RENSSELAER, Who Will Be the New York Representative of the National League for Woman's Service, of Which She Is Vice Chairman, at the Coming "Congress of National Service" in Chicago Next Week.

"THE GLOAMING"—BY C. D. WELDON. From the Annual Exhibition of the American Water Color Society at the Arts Club. (Times Photo Service.)

A NEW VICTORY SHIP OF THE AMERICAN MERCHANT MARINE IS TOWED IN THROUGH THE ICE FLOES AFTER LAUNCHING TO BE OUTFITTED FOR SERVICE BETWEEN "OVER HERE" AND "OVER THERE."
(© Public Information.)

LIEUT. EMILE PROBST of Newark, N. J., to Whom Has Been Awarded the French War Cross for Valor on the Verdun Front.