

GENERAL PERSHING INSPECTING AND SALUTING THE GUARD IN FRONT OF HIS HEAD-QUARTERS IN FRANCE.

(© Committee on Public Information.)

Y. M. C. A. HUT FOR AMERICAN OFFICERS ERECTED IN ST. JAMES'S SQUARE, One of London's Most Exclusive Residential Districts, and for 200 Years Regarded as Sacred from Invasion.

(Times Photo Service.)

OBSERVATION BALLOON WITHIN THE AMERICAN LINES IN FRANCE PROTECTED BY AN ANTI-AIRCRAFT GUN.

(© Committee on Public Information.)

AMERICANS GROUPED ABOUT THE BASKET OF AN OBSERVATION BALLOON IN WHICH FRENCH OFFICERS WITH WHOM THE AMERICANS ARE BRIGADED ARE ABOUT TO ASCEND.

(© Committee on Public Information.)

MEMBERS OF A Y. M. C. A. THEATRICAL CORPS GIVING AN OPEN AIR PERFORMANCE BEFORE AN AMERICAN MACHINE GUN BATTALION IMMEDIATELY BEHIND THE LINES IN FRANCE.

(© Committee on Public Information.)

AMERICAN VESSELS, CONVOYED BY AN AMERICAN DESTROYER, ENTERING THE HARBOR OF BREST.

CAPTAIN F. H. LA GUARDIA,

Member of Congress from the Fourteenth Manhattan District, with Signor Caproni, One of the Caproni Brothers, Airplane Inventors, in Milan. Captain La Guardia is Now Flying with the American Forces on the Italian Front.

AIRPLANES BEFORE THEIR HANGARS ON AN AMERICAN AVIATION FIELD BEHIND THE AMERICAN LINES.

MEMBERS OF AN AMERICAN AERO SQUADRON, ALL FULLY TRAINED AND READY FOR SERVICE, ON THE AMERICAN FRONT IN FRANCE. (Photos © Committee on Public Information)