

THE ALAMOSA AND THE ALCONA,
Second and Third of the 150 Fabricated Ships to Be Built by the Submarine Boat Corporation, Launched on the Fourth of July From the Corporation's Shipyards on Newark Bay.

(© Kadel & Herbert.)

THE S. S. CHETOPIA,
Third of the Ships
Launched From the Yards of the Submarine Boat Corporation on July 4.
(International Film Service Co.)

THE S. S. BALSTO MAKING THE PATRIOTIC SPLASH ON JULY
FOURTH AT THE PLANT
OF THE GROTON IRON WORKS, AT NOANK, CONN.

THE TAM-
MANY SOCIETY OF TAMMANY HALL
RAISING THE FLAG

In Union Square on the Morning of the Fourth, Jackies at Salute Lining the Rails of the "Land Battleship" Recruit.

(Times Photo Service.)

MRS. W. BOURKE COCKRAN AS "COLUMBIA,"
In the Stadium Pageant of the Fourth of July.
(© International Film Service.)

MRS. LYDIG
HOYT AS FRANCE, AND LUCIEN
MURA-TORE, Operatic Tenor, at the Independence
Day Pageant
Held in the Stadium of the City College of New York.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

JOSEPHUS DANIELS, SECRETARY OF THE NAVY, ON THE FOURTH OF JULY, ADDRESSING 5,000 UNITED STATES NAVAL RESERVES IN TRAINING AT PELHAM BAY PARK.

(Times Photo Service.)