

A BATTLEFRONT SCENE WHERE NATURE IS STILL UNDISTURBED, OCCUPIED BY ITALIAN SOLDIERS ON THE FRENCH FRONT. (French Pictorial Service.)

AMERICAN AVIATION STUDENTS LEARNING TO FIRE FROM A HEIGHT BY SHOOTING AT CLAY PIGEONS IN THE CAMP AT FORT SILL, OKLA. (© Committee on Public Information.)

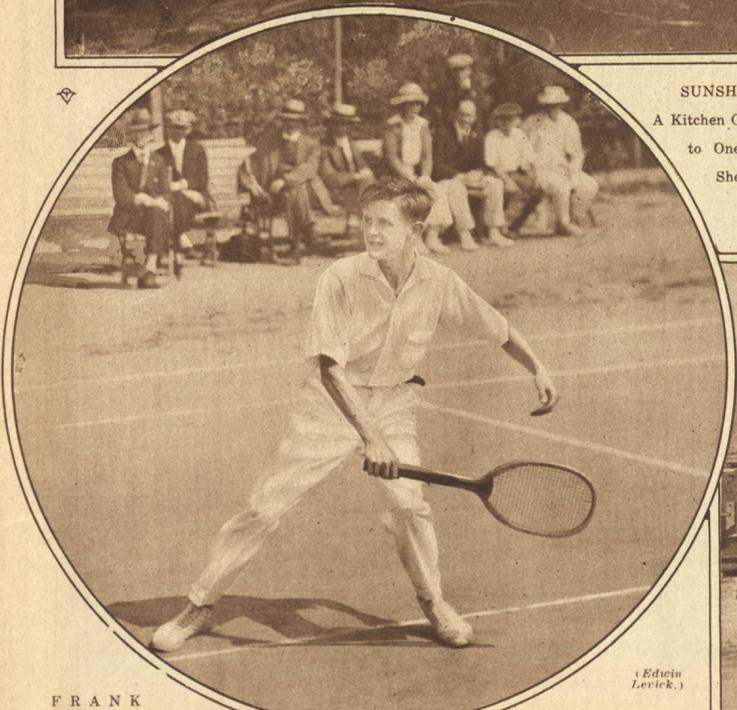

SUNSHINE IN AN AMERICAN DUGOUT. A Kitchen Outfit Photographed Beneath the Entrance to One of the Cavernous Quarries That Shelter Our Men in the Oise District. (French Pictorial Service.)

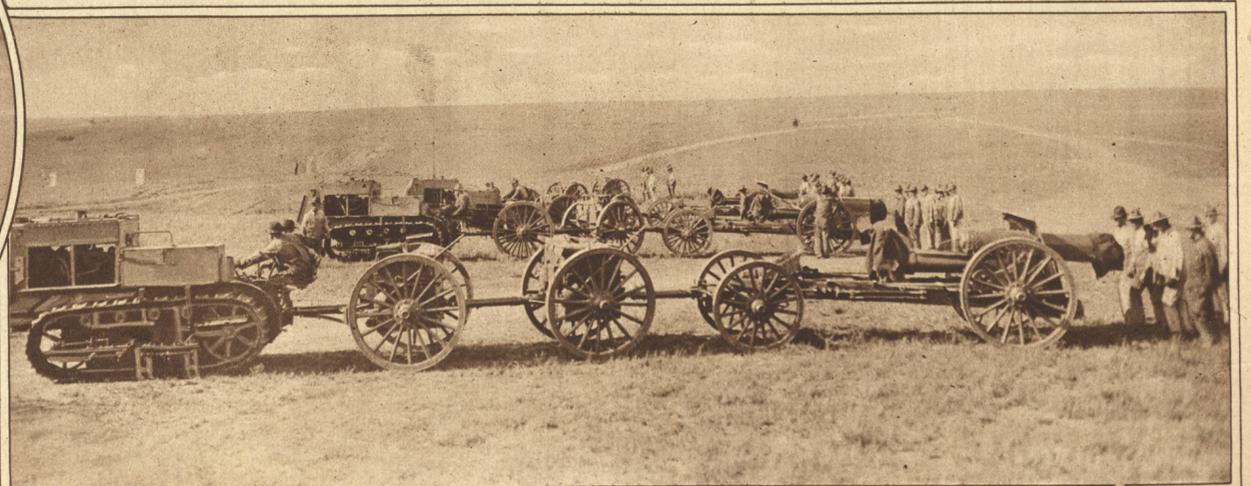

GENERAL FRANCHET d'ESPEREY, THE NEW FRENCH COMMANDER, CO-OPERATING WITH THE ITALIANS IN ALBANIA. (© Press Illustrating Service.)

PRINCESS MARY OF ENGLAND AT A THEATRICAL GARDEN PARTY FOR THE BENEFIT OF WAR CHARITY. (Press Illustrating Service.)

FRANK ANDERSON, Long Island Lawn Tennis Champion, Who Defeated Gerald Emerson in the Metropolitan Junior Semi-Finals and Then Won the Championship, July 13, by Beating Cecil Donaldson. With Donaldson He Had Already Won the Doubles on the Preceding Day. (Edwin Levick.)

TRACTORS HAULING HEAVY GUNS IN TRAINING CAMP MANOEUVRES AT FORT SILL, OKLA. (© Committee on Public Information.)