

MRS. WOODROW WILSON, WITH THE PRESIDENT AT HER SIDE, Waving a Huge Bouquet as the 7,500-Ton Ship Quistconck, Just Christened by Her with a Name of Her Own Selection, Slipped Down the Ways at Hog Island, Penn., to the Cheers of 60,000 People, as the Initial Effort of the Greatest Shipyard in the World.
(Times Photo Service.)

MRS. WOODROW WILSON Naming the Quistconck at the Hog Island Shipyard, at the Same Time Breaking a Bottle of Champagne on the Ship's Steel Prow. The President Is Standing Just a Step Behind Her.
(Times Photo Service.)

KING GEORGE V. OF GREAT BRITAIN GREETING LIEUTENANT MIMS, Captain of an American Army Baseball Team at a Recent London Game Between Picked Army and Navy Teams. Vice Admiral Sims, U. S. N., Is Standing By.
(© Central News Service.)

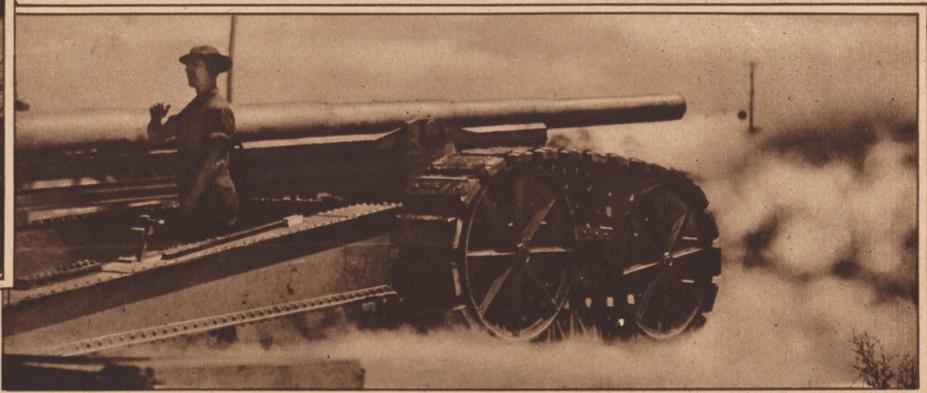

THE ABBE GAUTHIER, Vicar of the Church of Saint-Gervais, Paris, Returning to the Hotel de Ville Where Premier Clemenceau Decorated Him with the French War Cross for Valorous Conduct When, on Good Friday Last, Nearly 100 Persons Were Killed in His Church by a Shell from the German Long-Range Gun.
(International Film Service.)

AMERICAN RELIEF SQUAD, MASKED AND HELMETED, GOING FORWARD IN THE CHATEAU-THIERRY SECTOR TO TAKE THEIR PLACES ON THE FIRING LINES.
(French Pictorial Service.)

LIEUTENANT WILLY COPPENS, Belgian "Ace of Aces," with Twenty-four German Aircraft to His Credit in Three Months, All Downed in Lone Battles. On July 22 Last Lieutenant Coppens Destroyed Three Enemy Balloons in Five Minutes, and Has Just Been Awarded the Order of the Crown and the Cross of the Knight of the Order of Leopold.

THE FRENCH "155" HOWITZER IN RECOIL ON FIRING AT THE ABERDEEN PROVING GROUNDS, MARYLAND. This Gun, as the American Official Photograph Shows, Is a Self-Tractor, Being Mounted on an Endless Caterpillar Belt, With Apparently Much of the Flexibility and Endurance of the Tank.
(© Committee on Public Information.)