

A SQUAD OF SOLDIER FARMERS, PHYSICALLY UNFIT FOR OVERSEAS FIGHTING, MARCHING OUT TO WORK IN THE EARLY MORNING AT CAMP DIX, N. J., WHERE THEY HAVE PLANTED IN CROPS THIS YEAR SIX HUNDRED ACRES, WITH A SAVING TO THE GOVERNMENT OF $25,000 IN VEGETABLES AND FARM PRODUCTS.

(Photos Times Photo Service.)

of the Netherlands Following, in Attendance on the Unveiling Ceremonies of the Statue of Johan de Witt at The Hague.

CAMP DIX SOLDIER FARMERS IN THE LATE IRISH POTATO FIELD.

QUEEN WILHELMINA OF THE NETHERLANDS, Escorted by the Dutch Minister of the Interior, Cort Van der Linden, the Prince Consort

CAMP DIX'S ONION CROP THIS YEAR IS A GREAT SUCCESS, AS THE HARVESTING SHOWS.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY UNION, AND ITS SERIES OF UNIVERSITY WAR CLUBS IN EUROPE. They Are, Left to Right: Paul van Dyke, Princeton; James Hazen Hyde, Harvard; Van Rensselaer Lansing, Massachusetts "Tech."; George H. Nettleton, Yale; George B. Vibbert, Michigan, and Lewis D. Crenshaw, Virginia.

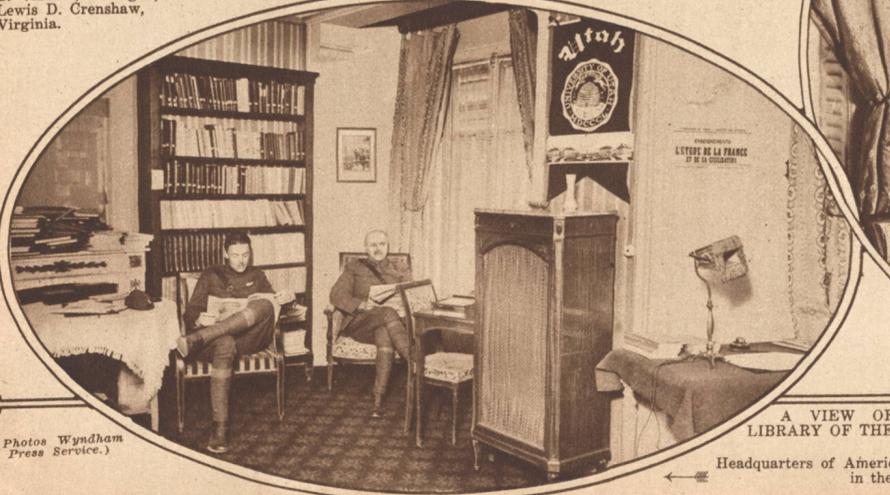

(Times Photo Service.)

CORNER IN THE VIRGINIA ROOM AT THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY CLUB, PARIS.

Photographs of Alumni on the Wall Include President Wilson, '81; Attorney General Thomas W. Gregory, '84; Justice James C. MacReynolds, U. S. Supreme Court, '84; Governor Julius C. Gunter of Colorado, '79, and President E. A. Alderman of the University.

MRS. AGATHE O. STEWART of New York, the First of Her Sex to Become the Secretary of an American Cabinet Minister, in This Case Secretary of Commerce Wm. C. Redfield.

A VIEW OF THE READING ROOM AND LIBRARY OF THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY CLUB, PARIS, Headquarters of American Officers on Duty or Rest Leave in the French Capital.

(Photos Wyndham Press Service.)