

AMERICAN
Y. M. C. A.
WORKER DIS-TRIBUTING CHOCO-LATE, CIGARETTES, AND OTHER LIGHTER SUPPLIES IN THE AMERICAN TRENCHES ON THE WESTERN FRONT.

(© International Film Service.)

A "VET."
One of Thousands of English
Girls Looking After the Welfare of British Service Horses Behind the Lines in France, with One of Her Charges.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

AMBU-LANCE
DRIVER OF AN ENGLISH SANITARY SECTION,
Who Has Won the War Cross for Valorous
Conduct on the Oise Front, with Her Kitten Mascot Whose Only Home Is a Shrapnel-Proof
Steel Helmet.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

MISS WINIFRED
HOLT

of New York,
Head of the Work
in Paris in Behalf of Soldiers
Blinded in Battle,
Accompanied by
Mlle. Olieura,
French Army
Nurse, Offering
a Light to a Wounded American in the Paris
Evacuation Hospital.

(© Committee
on Public Information.)

EDWARD SHEARSON,
New York Banker and Chairman of the Fund for the Fatherless
Children of France, Immediately After Having Been Decorated by Marshal Joffre
with the Cross
of the Legion
of Honor.

(© International Film Service.)

MEN OF THE
TWENTY-SIXTH, OR
NEW ENGLAND, DIVISION
NORTH OF THE MARNE MAN-NING THEIR ELABORATELY CAMOU-FLAGED GUN.

(© Committee on Public Information.)

"SAVE HER FROM THE HUN—BUY LIBERTY BONDS."
From a Photograph Posed for by Miss Frances Fairchild, a 1918 Debutante of New York, in Behalf of the Forthcoming Fourth Liberty Loan.
Lines and Picture Have Been Officially Adopted by the New York Liberty Loan Committee.
(© Charlotte Fairchild.)