

AMERICAN TROOPS ATTENDING MASS ON A MIDSUMMER SUNDAY MORNING IN A LORRAINE VALLEY, WITH THE GERMAN LINES LESS THAN A MILE AWAY. (Photos © International Film Service.)

THE HEAD OF A FUNERAL PROCESSION IN HONOR OF AMERICAN DEAD "SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE."

WOMEN OF A FRENCH VILLAGE MARCH WITH AMERICAN SOLDIERS IN A FUNERAL PROCESSION OF AMERICAN DEAD.

POILUS FORM A GUARD OF HONOR FOR AMERICANS KILLED IN DEFENSE OF FRANCE. Even the Improvised Hearse Must Be Camouflaged with Boughs to Avoid Attracting the Attention of Enemy Airmen.

Y. M. C. A. GIRL WORKER DARNING THE COAT SLEEVE OF AN AMERICAN SOLDIER IN FRONT OF AN AMERICAN Y. M. C. A. HUT BEHIND THE LINES IN FRANCE.

BRIGADIER GENERAL HOFFMAN AND CAPTAIN ARCHIBALD B. ROOSEVELT, Third Son of Colonel Roosevelt, on a Paris Boulevard. Captain Roosevelt is Still Suffering from the Wounds in Arm and Knee Received in Battle on March 18

Last. →

"YANKS" ATTENDING A "Y" SONG CONCERT ON THE GROUNDS OF A FOURTEENTH CENTURY FRENCH CHATEAU.