

THE LIGHTER CAPTAINS' UNION OF NEW YORK MARCHING IN THE LABOR DAY PARADE ON FIFTH AVENUE.
(Times Photo Service.)

Win-the-War Spirit Runs High in Labor's Greatest New York Parade

NEW YORK'S LABOR DAY PARADE UP FIFTH AVENUE CROSSING BROADWAY AT TWENTY-THIRD STREET (© Paul Thompson.)

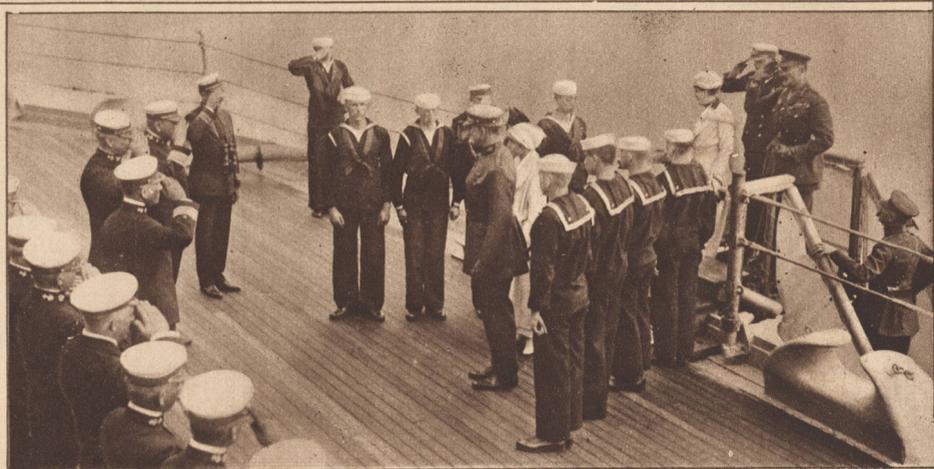

EVEN THE ELEPHANTS TRUMPETED FOR W. S. S. IN LABOR'S PATRIOTIC PAGEANT.
(Times Photo Service.)

WILLIAM B. WILSON, SECRETARY OF LABOR, AND OFFICIAL REVIEWERS OF LABOR'S DEMONSTRATION. In the Panel, First Row, Left to Right, are Daniel S. Jacobs, Secretary Wilson, Alfred E. Smith, Democratic Nominee for Governor; Mayor John F. Hylan, and Ernest Boehm. (Times Photo Service.)

THE BOILER MAKERS, IN BLACK CAPS AND BLUE BLOUSES, WERE CHEERED THROUGHOUT THE LINE OF MARCH.
(Times Photo Service.)

KING ALBERT I. OF THE BELGIANS AND HIS QUEEN, on a Visit to the American Battleship Fleet in European Waters, Are Here Shown Being Received on the American Flagship by Admiral Hugh Rodman, U. S. N., and Staff. (Central News.)

LIEUTENANT EDMUND G. CHAMBERLAIN, of San Antonio, Texas, Recently Cited for the Victoria Cross and the Congressional Medal of Honor, Who in a Single Day Destroyed Five German Airplanes, Damaged Two Others, Scattered a Detachment of German Soldiers, Capturing One, and Finally Carried a Wounded French Officer Back to Safety, Where He Withheld His Name, Fearing Reprimand.

ENGLISH GIRL "BEGS A LIGHT" FROM A FELLOW MUNITION WORKER. The British Women War Workers, According to Dispatches from London, Now Considering Cigarette Smoking a Desirable Solace Rather than a "Naughty" Habit. (© Gilliam Service.)