

MAJOR GENERAL CLARENCE EDWARDS, COMMANDING THE 26TH OR NEW ENGLAND DIVISION, CONGRATULATING OFFICERS OF HIS DIVISION ON WHOM THE FRENCH COMMANDER IN HIS SECTOR HAS JUST CONFERRED THE FRENCH WAR CROSS.

He Is Shaking Hands with Lieut. Thomas Sanders. Others in the Group Are Chaplain W. G. Farrell, Lieut. A. E. Thompson, Lieut. Daniel Willard, and Lieut. F. R. Johnson.

MARSHAL FOCH AND GEN. PERSHING Before the American Headquarters Somewhere in France. From a New Official Photograph Just Received in This Country.

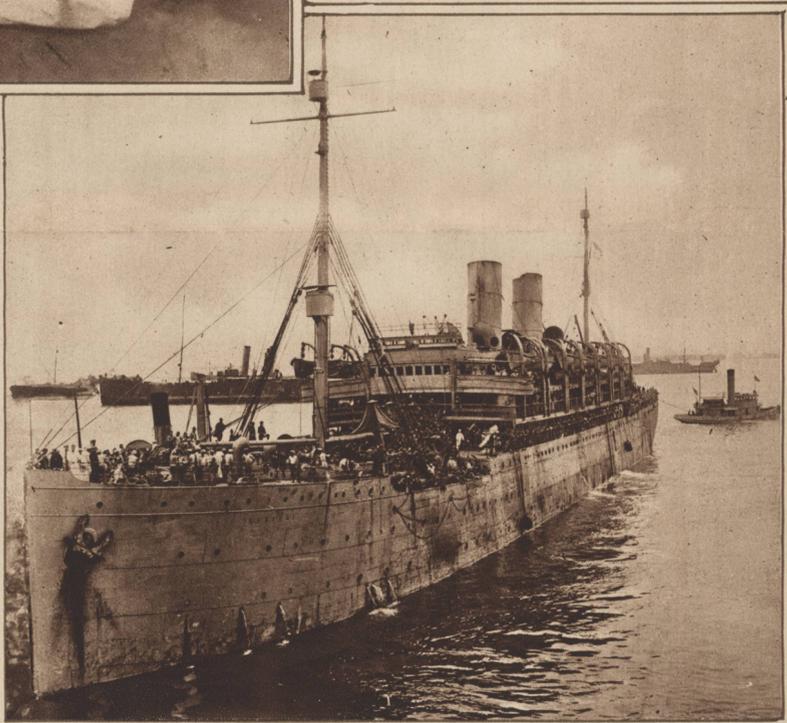

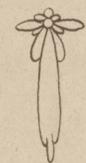

A NEW "JOAN OF ARC OF FRANCE," Mlle. CLAIRE FERCHAUD, Accompanied by a Few of Her Followers, Praying Before the Calvary in the Garden of the Old St. Peter's Church, Montmartre, Paris. Mlle. Ferchaud Has Kept Herself in Seclusion Since the Announcement That Supernatural Favors Had Been Bestowed Upon Her, a Matter Investigated by the Bishop of Poitiers, and It Has Been Impossible to Obtain a Good Photograph of Her Until Now. (© Underwood & Underwood.)

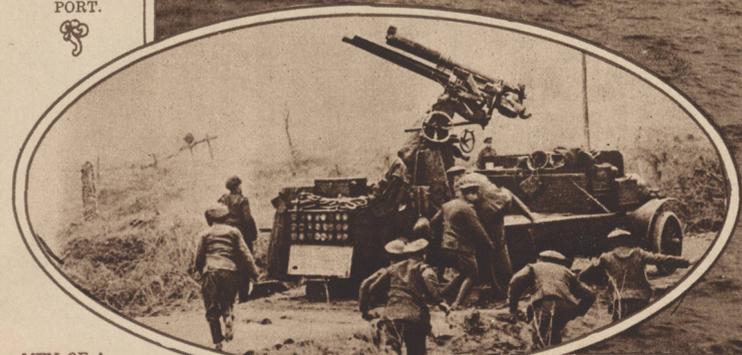

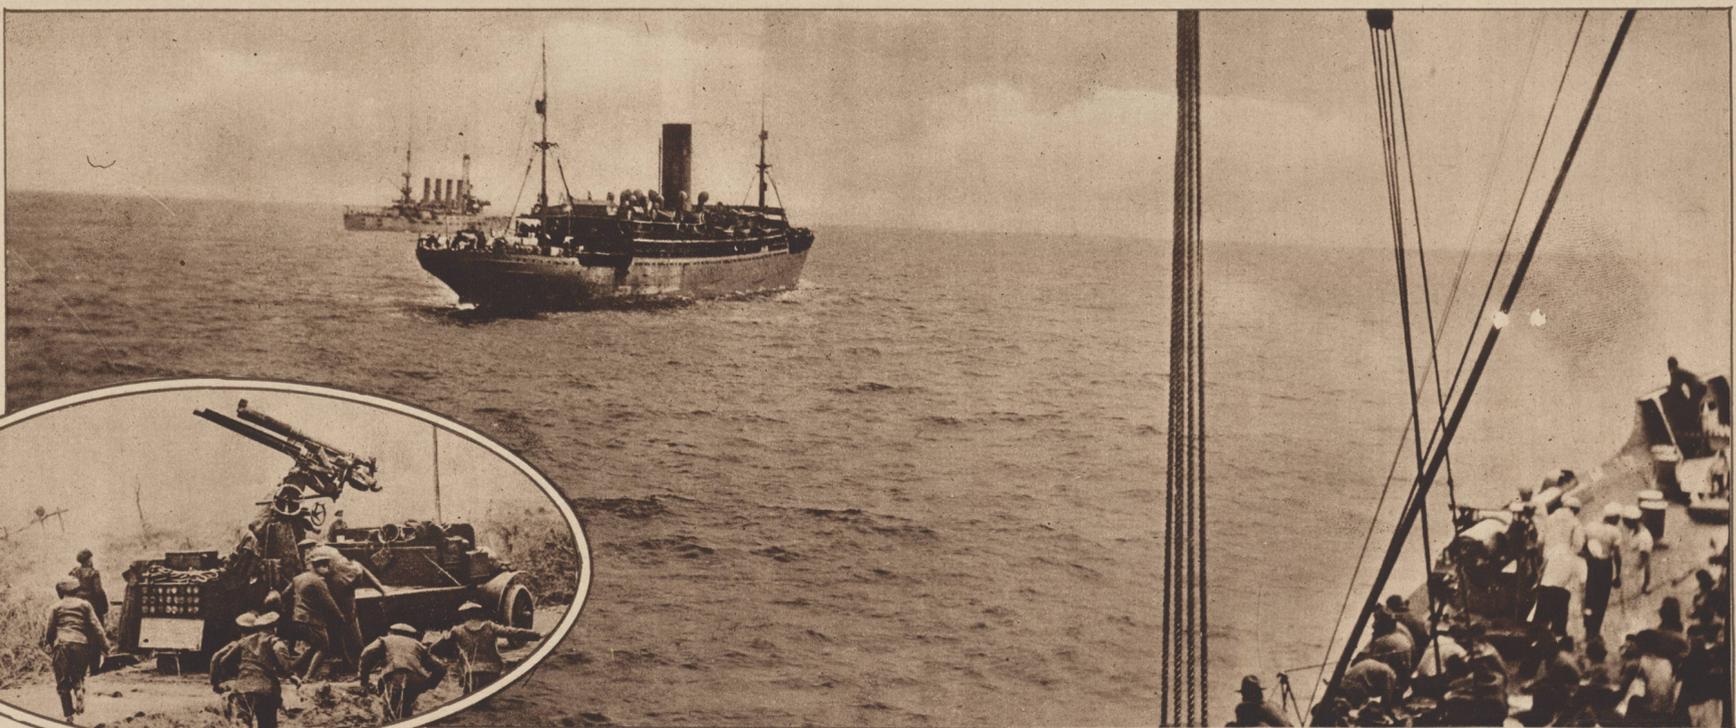

"AMERICA ANSWERS." From a New Series of Patriotic Pictures Posed by Ben Ali Haggin, with Ethel Barrymore as Columbia.

(© Ben Ali Haggin, Photo by Charlotte Fairchild.)

AN AMERICAN TRANSPORT, BOUND FOR FRANCE, HEADING DOWN THE BAY OF AN ATLANTIC PORT, ITS DECKS FAIRLY BROWN WITH KHAKI CLAD MEN. (Photos © Committee on Public Information.)

AN AMERICAN PIONEER REGIMENT OF INFANTRY ABOARD A TRANSPORT AT THE HOUR OF SAILING FROM AN ATLANTIC PORT.

MEN OF A CANADIAN ANTI-AIRCRAFT SECTION, A MOMENT BEFORE ENGAGED IN CARD GAMES, RUSHING TO THEIR GUNS AT TOP SPEED ON SEEING THE APPROACH OF AN ENEMY AIR FLEET. (© Western Newspaper Union Photo Service.)

AMERICAN TRANSPORTS LADEN WITH TROOPS, ON THE HIGH SEAS, BOUND FOR FRANCE. These Are but Two Ships of a Large Fleet Closely Guarded by American Warships, One of Which Can Be Seen in the Background. (© International Film Service.)