

SUR-GEON-
GENERAL
WILLIAM
C. GORGAS,
U. S. A.

on an Inspection Tour of the Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, Where Maimed American Soldiers, Under Physical Reconstruction There, Are Taught Carpet Weaving and Other Useful Occupations.

(© International Film Service.)

THE WIFE OF AN AMERICAN SOLDIER, the latter now somewhere in France, seeking advice at the Red Cross Home Service in the Grand Central Palace, a Place of Refuge for Dependents of American Soldiers and Sailors Overseas Who Need Help in Their Domestic Difficulties.

(Paul Thompson.)

CAPTIVE BALLOON FOR MILITARY OBSERVATION ASCENDING AT THE AMERICAN ARMY BALLOON SCHOOL, LEE HALL, NEAR NEWPORT NEWS, VA.

(© International Film Service.)

AMERICAN SOLDIERS, ONE WEARING A KITCHEN APRON TO PROTECT HIS KHAKI TROUSERS, HELPING A FRENCH FAMILY IN THE HARVEST OF THEIR POTATO CROP.

(Photos © Underwood & Underwood.)

AN AMERICAN SOLDIER, FROM THE ITALIAN QUARTER OF NEW YORK CITY, AND A FRENCH PEASANT AND HIS WIFE, WITH WHOM HE IS BILLETED SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS, ON REST LEAVE AT AIX-LES-PAINS, FRANCE, ARE GUESTS OF THE DUKE AND DUCHESS OF VENDOME, THE LATTER A SISTER OF KING ALBERT OF THE BELGIANS, at the Hotel Splendide, the Entertainment Having Been Arranged by the American Y. M. C. A.

MAJOR GENERAL G. B. DUNCAN AND STAFF IN FRONT OF GENERAL DUNCAN'S HEADQUARTERS ON THE AMERICAN FRONT IN FRANCE.

(Committee on Public Information.)

HELEN AND PERDITA ASQUITH, Granddaughters of the Former British Prime Minister from the Cover of "Peggotty's Hut" Somewhere on the Coast of England, Watching an Airplane and Wondering if It Be Friend or Foe.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

KING ALFONSO XIII. OF SPAIN AND PRINCESS MARIA LOUISE,

Members of a Bear Hunting Party in the Spanish Interior.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)