

BRITISH TANKS AND TOMMIES GOING FORWARD THROUGH A WOOD, GERMAN PRISONERS MEANWHILE PASSING BY ON THEIR WAY TO THE REAR, SOME JUST REMOVING THEIR GAS MASKS.

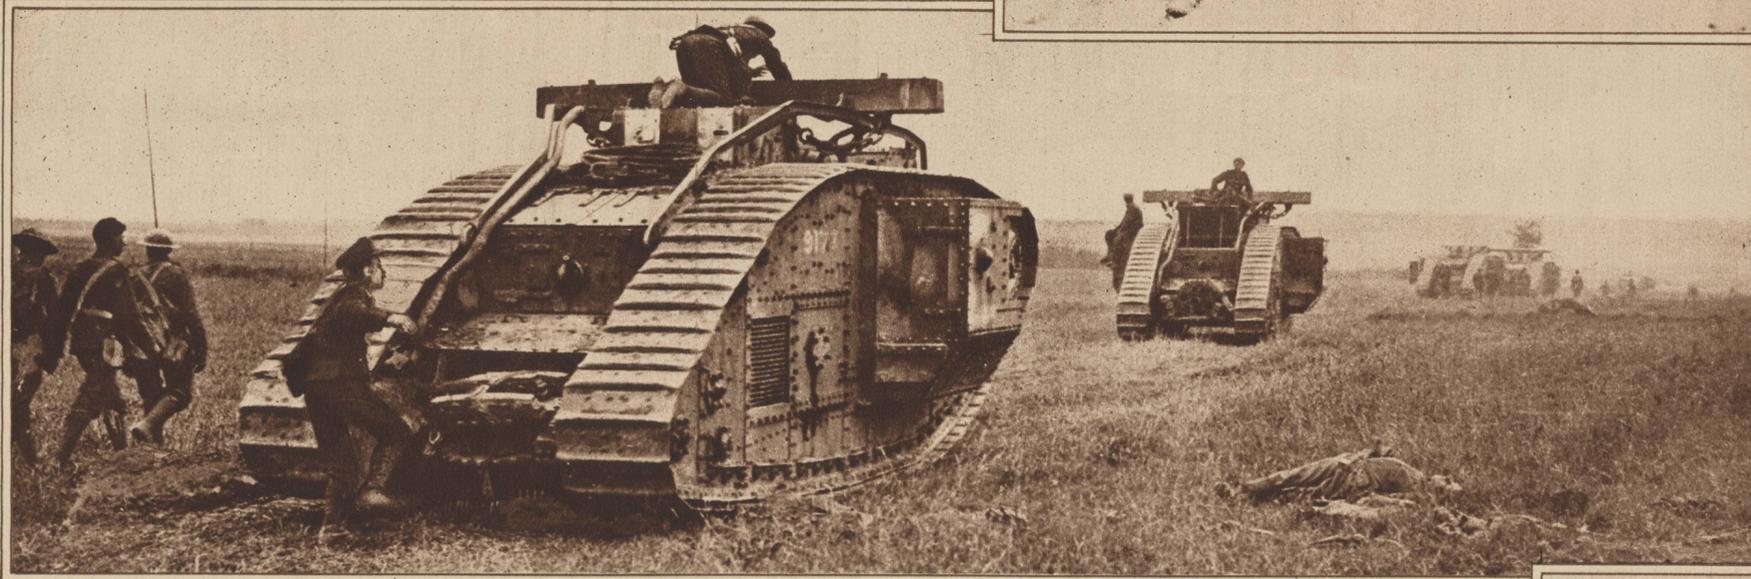

CANADIANS INSPECTING A GERMAN GUN OF HIGH POWER JUST CAPTURED BY THEM, THE GERMANS HAVING BLOWN OFF THE MUZZLES OF FOUR OF THESE GUNS BEFORE RETREATING.

BRITISH AND FRENCH WOUNDED, THE LATTER BLINDED AND WALKING IN HAND, COMING IN FROM A BATTLEFIELD IN CHAMPAGNE WHERE THEY FOUGHT SIDE BY SIDE.

(International Film Service)

BRITISH TANKS ADVANCING ON A BATTLEFIELD OF THE WESTERN FRONT. A Seriously Wounded German Soldier, Whom the Stretcher Bearers Have Not Yet Reached, Can Be Seen in the Right Foreground.

ALTAR CANDLES, CRUCIFIXES, AND BELLS REMOVED BY GERMANS FROM CHURCHES NEAR OULCHY-LE-CHATEAU FOR SHIPMENT TO GERMANY TO BE MELTED DOWN AND USED IN THE MANUFACTURE OF MUNITIONS, BUT LEFT BEHIND BY THEM IN THEIR HASTY RETREAT BEFORE THE FRENCH.

Mlle. THERESE CLEMENCEAU, Daughter of Georges Clemenceau, French Premier, Whose Engagement to Jules Jung, Formerly a Paris Attorney, Now a Sergeant in the French Army, and a Winner of the French War Cross, Has Been Announced.

ENGLISH GIRL, LANDWORKER IN AN ENGLISH FLAX FIELD.